used for a school-house for a number of years after they came to the country.

Among the pioneer teachers of the township were W. J. Holway, Matthias Rohn, Miss Green and Mr. Dwindle. At present, instead of log buildings we find beautiful brick structures, with all the modern improvements, while the teachers are among the best in the State.

The first saw-mill in the township was on Potato creek, built by John Green, Jr. The first birth was Andrew Bird, June 24, 1832. The first death was that of Isaac Rudduck, Jan. 13, 1833. He was the first buried in Sumption's Prairie grave-yard. The first couples married were John Rudduck and Elizabeth Rupe, and Abijah Sumption and Rachel Rupe.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

Personal mention of the leading and representative citizens of the township, of those who made and are making its history, we regard as a most important feature of local history and therefore give the following sketches.

M. A. Aldrich was born July 9, 1834, in Sandusky county, Ohio. His parents were David and Elizabeth (Bixler) Aldrich, the former of New York and the latter of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania. They moved from New York about 1825, to Sandusky county, Ohio, and in 1854 they came from that place to this county, settling in Penn tp. The subject of this sketch was married Aug. 1, 1858, to Mary Antrim, daughter of William and Sarah Antrim, of this county. They have 4 children: Henry, Matthew, William and Mary. Mrs. Aldrich died in May, 1874. Mr. A. was again married in July, 1875, to Mary E. Garwood, daughter of Jonathan and Martha Garwood, who were among the first settlers in this county. Mrs. Garwood is still living. Her father was among the first settlers of Indiana. Mr. Aldrich is a member of the Baptist Church, has a farm well cultivated; P. O. South Bend.

William Bassett, sec. 9, is the son of Thomas and Nancy (Hicks) Bassett, of Lorain county, Ohio, formerly of New York, but natives of Massachusetts. Mr. Bassett's grandmother on his father's side was a descendant of Miles Standish, about the fourth generation from the old Captain. Mr. B. was born in Genesee county, N. Y., May 16, 1828; removed with his parents to Lorain county, Ohio, in 1835. He came to this county when 19 years of age, and has made it his home ever since. He was married in the spring of 1849, to Amie Ann Auten, daughter of William and Sarah (Wharton) Auten, of this county, who came here in 1835. They have 9 children: Charles H., Cordelia, Mary (dec.), Arminda, Martha, William, Miles S. and Willis Edward. Mr. and Mrs. Bassett are worthy members of the M. E. Church at Maple Grove; P. O., South Bend.

Academy; came to this county in 1864, and followed farming until the year 1872, when he purchased an interest in his father's saw-mill; he continued in that business till 1877, when his father died, and by the division of the property the mill fell into his possession; he still keeps it in operation. In 1867 he married Miss Catharine A. Gearhart, daughter of Henry and Kasia Gearhart, and they have had 7 children, of whom 4 are now living, viz.: Franklin E., Henry E., Joseph and Elmira. Mr. S. owns a farm of 380 acres.

J. A. Varier, M. D., physician and surgeon, North Liberty; born in this county Nov. 2, 1852; his parents were Joseph and Mary (Dougherty) Varier, the former a native of Ohio, and the latter of Pennsylvania; he lived on a farm till he was 12 years of age, when his father sold his farm and moved to Marshall county; he attended the Salem College from 1864 to 1868; he taught school until 1871, then commenced reading medicine under the instructions of Dr. T. T. Linn, at Bourbon, a very eminent surgeon in that place; he studied with him for about five years, and in the meantime attended the Indiana Medical College at Indianapolis; in 1876 he attended the Cincinnati regular Medical College, at which he graduated; he then returned home and commenced practicing in North Liberty. Mr. V. has distinguished himself in his profession in that town and vicinity: has been a member of the St. Joseph County Medical Society since 1876. He was married Oct. 15, 1878, to Miss Ella Vasburgh, daughter of Nelson and Eliza Vasburgh. Mr. V. is a member of the Masonic fraternity.

George Waldsmith was born in this county June 11, 1838; his parents, Peter and Susan Waldsmith, were natives of Ohio; he was reared on a farm in the wilds of St. Joseph county, and while others had access to common schools, he was deprived of them, having to stay at home and work for his mother, while his father was away laboring for their support. He was married Sept. 28, 1869, to Miss Maggie Lower, and their 2 children are Rosanna and Grant. Mrs. Waldsmith is a daughter of Peter and Rosanna Lower, natives of Ohio. She was educated in the Academy at Millersburg, O., and followed school-teaching for about 16 years. Mr. W.'s father was a settler in this county at the early period of 1832.

Geo. W. Williams was born Nov. 1, 1837, in the State of Illinois; his parents were James and Mary Williams, the former a native of Indiana, and the latter of Virginia. In early childhood he was taken by his parents to La Porte county, where he grew to manhood. Aug. 15, 1862, he enlisted in the army in 21st Ind. Battery, and participated in the battles of Chickamauga, Hoover's Gap and other skirmishes. He served till the close of the war, was honorably discharged, and returned home and resumed farming. Feb. 19, 1869, he was married to Ann E. Auten, daughter of William and Sarah Auten, and their 2 children are Maretta M. and Charlie O. Mr. W. owns a farm of 80 acres on sec. 36.

Samuel Williams, a prominent farmer in Liberty tp., was born in Cumberland county, Dec. 18, 1802; his parents were George was married in 1866, to Miss Lucetta Mason, a native of Painesville, Ohio. They have had 3 children: Charlie, Edna, and Hattie (deceased). Mr. Curtis is engaged in farming and stock-raising, on sec. 21, and owns 120 acres of land. His father, James Curtis (deceased), was born in Miami county, Ohio, Jan. 17, 1807. He had no educational advantages, but was always a hard worker. He came to this county in 1831, when the Indians were numerous, and the timber thick and heavy. The noted chief Raccoon was a frequent caller at his residence, and was buried on the farm of Mr. Curtis, near his house. A son of Mr. Curtis, knowing the exact locality, many years afterward exhumed the skeleton and procured the jawbone of that noted chief, which is now in Mishawaka. Mr. Curtis was married Sept. 11, 1829, to Miss Nancy Byrkit, by whom he had 11 children, 10 sons and one daughter. He was a highly respected citizen; and there was one thing connected with his life of which but few can boast,—i. e., he never had a lawsuit. He died Jan. 12, 1878.

John L. Dayhuff was born in Sandusky county, O., Nov. 27, 1836, and his parents were Moses and Hannah Dayhuff, natives of Maryland and of German descent. Mr. Dayhuff was brought up on a farm, and received a common-school education. He was but seven years old when his father died. He came to this county in 1848, and was married in March, 1859, to Miss Mary Varney, by whom he has had 8 children; of these, 5 are living, viz.: Emma J., Minnie B., William A., John B. and Charles E. Mr. D. has engaged largely in putting in wells and cisterns, and in 1864 he was employed in the sale of pumps. He began poor and now has a good home, with all the necessary comforts of life. He now has his second wife, whom he married in June, 1875. They have one child, Lulu.

Harlow Dodge, deceased, was born in Oneida county, N. Y., in 1815. The early part of his boyhood was spent upon a farm. He began as an apprentice at the trade of millwright when he was 14 years of age. He came to Michigan in 1836, and to this county in 1840. He was a contractor on the L. S. & M. S. R. R., having built all the depots for this road between Bristol and La Porte, and between Elkhart and Toledo. He was married Jan. 23, 1845, to Miss Elizabeth Luce, by whom he has had 5 children; of these, 4 are living, viz.: Mary, Wallace H., Nellie A. and William W. Mrs. Dodge's father was Sprowel Luce. For some years prior to his death, Mr. Dodge was engaged in manufacturing in Mishawaka.

Wallace W. Dodge, son of the preceding, was born in Mishawaka, July 10, 1849; he was educated at Notre Dame, Ind. He engaged in the hardware business in Mishawaka for 13 years. July 13, 1870, he was married to Miss Hattie Vessey, daughter of J. M. Vessey. He is manager and proprietor of the Dodge Manufactory already mentioned.

A. Eberhart was born in Wayne county, Feb. 4, 1821. His parents were Frederick and Elizabeth (Weltner) Eberhart, natives of Zouave drill. This was Captain Wm. F. Lynch, who, later, at his home, organized the 58th Illinois Volunteer Infantry, attained to the rank of brigadier-general, and for a time commanded a division. He was disabled by a gunshot wound which later caused his death. Meetings were also held in Mishawaka.

A committee was appointed to collect subscriptions to be used in forming and equipping volunteer companies and aiding the families of volunteers. This committee later developed into the Volunteer Aid Association.

Enlistment for service was immediately commenced, and Company I, 9th Indiana Volunteer Infantry was organized for three months service with seventy-four men and three officers, Captain Andrew Anderson, First Lieutenant Henry Loring, and Second Lieutenant Henry J. Blowney. This organization entrained for Indianapolis, on April 19, 1861, and was mustered into the Federal service on April 25th, under Colonel Robert H. Milroy, of the 9th Regiment. This regiment was the first to leave the state, entraining for Grafton, West Virginia on May 29th, and arriving on June 1st. There it was attached to Colonel Kelley's command, and sent to surprise the enemy at Philippi on June 6th. Later it was assigned to General Morris' brigade, was in skirmishes and was engaged at Laurel Hill and Carrick's Ford. John Auten was the first St. Joseph county man killed in action. As a member of Company I, he volunteered for scouting duty with another company and was killed on the afternoon of July 10th, 1861. He was twenty-two years old at the time of his death and the G. A. R. Post bearing his name is the oldest one in the State of Indiana. The 9th Infantry was discharged at Indianapolis at the end of its three months enlistment, was reorganized at once, enlisting for three years, having been mustered in at Laporte on September 5, 1861. On December 12th, 1861, they re-enlisted as veterans, and were finally mustered out in Texas in September, 1865. During the war three of Company I's officers were killed in action and one died of wounds, while three privates were killed in action and fifteen died of wounds or disease. The unit participated in the following engagements: Greenbrier, West Virginia, Allegheny, Shiloh, and was also in the battles of Perryville, Danville, Wildcat Mountain, Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain, Missionary Ridge, served in the Atlanta Campaign in the pursuit of Hood's Army and was also engaged at Columbia and Franklin, at Nashville and in the closing campaigns in Louisiana and Texas.

Company B, 15th Indiana Volunteer Infantry was recruited in St. Joseph county, and was enlisted with one hundred and five men and four officers for a three year term. The officers were Captain Alexander Fowler, Lieutenant John H. Gardner, Adjutant John E. George, and Adjutant Edward Nicar. The 15th Infantry was originally mustered in at Lafayette in May 1861 for three months but was reorganized and mustered in at Lafayette for three years on June 14th, 1861, with George D. Wagner as Colonel. Captain Fowler was promoted to major and later became colonel of the 99th regiment. Company B

Major General Milroy, and Companies C, D and H, were in the defense of Huntsville, against General Forrest, on October 1, 1864. After the evacuation of Tullahama, on November 26th, 1864, the regiment went to Murfreesboro, and was in the battle of Overall's Creek, and Wilkinson's Pike. It went into winter quarters at Nashville, and was assigned to the second brigade 7th Division, Cavalry Corps. On February 11, 1865, it embarked for New Orleans, stopped for a short time at Vicksburg enroute, and from New Orleans went to Navy Cove, Mobile Bay, reporting to Major General Canby. After the fall of Mobile, it was transferred to Major William H. Calkins, on April 17th, and made a raid of eight hundred miles through Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia. It operated around Columbus, Grenada, Austin, and other towns in Mississippi, and in November was mustered out at Vicksburg, arriving at Indianapolis, where the men were discharged on November 22nd, 1865. Five men died of wounds and six from disease, during its period of service.

21st Battery Light Artillery, Captained by William W. Andrew, was composed of St. Joseph and Laporte county men, one hundred and seven being from the former county. The battery was mustered in at Indianapolis, on September 9, 1862. It opposed Kirby Smith until February 2nd, 1863, and then went to Nashville and Carthage, Tennessee. It engaged in an expedition to Rome, Georgia, returned to Carthage, and was engaged in considerable skirmishing. On June 3, 1863, it joined Reynold's Division of Rosecrans Army and went to Murfreesboro. It was at Chattanooga, Chickamauga, and Missionary Ridge, and during the summer of 1864, was engaged against Forrest and Hood. On June 21st, 1865 it was returned to Indianapolis, to be mustered out. The losses of the battery were: two killed in action, one died of wounds, two died of accidental injury and twenty-one died of disease.

Grand Army of the Republic. The Civil war stands unique among the wars of all times as being the only conflict by which both the victor and the conquered were benefitted, and that its memory has been kept so green has been largely due to the efforts of that high and noble organization, the Grand Army of the Republic. Founded in 1866 by Major Benjamin F. Stephenson at Decatur, Illinois, the Grand Army was organized to keep alive in the breasts of its members, and the citizenry at large, those principles of patriotism and liberty for which the war was waged.

Auten Post No. 8, of South Bend, was one of the first posts of the Grand Army to come into existence. It was organized August 31, 1866, and derived its name from John Auten. It was at first called Post No. 1, District of St. Joseph, Department of Indiana, but in 1868 the name was changed to John Auten Post No. 17, in honor of John Auten, a St. Joseph county boy killed in action at Laurel Hill, West Virginia July 10, 1861 at the age of twenty-one years. He was a farmer boy from Sumption Prairie, and was one of the first from northern Indiana to lay down his life in the cause. His body was returned to St. Joseph county, and his funeral, one of the first, if not the very first, soldier funerals, in Indiana, was held from the old court house. L. Humphreys was the first commander of the post, W. N. Severence, adjutant; A. B. Wade, quartermaster; Martin Beebe, chaplain; Joseph Heiser, officer of the day; Israel McConnell, officer of the guard; J. S. Van Arsdale, sergeant major; and F. Bills, quartermaster sergeant. From 1871-72 until 1879, the Indiana Department of the Grand Army, and all its posts with the one exception of Auten Post ceased functioning. This post kept meeting regularly, elected officers annually and did everything prescribed for a post to do, and when the reorganization of the Department of Indiana came in 1879, it was in a flourishing condition both as to morale and finances. Upon reorganization, the name was changed to Auten Post No. 8, there having been twelve in the department. On January 20, 1888, the charter of the post was annulled. Needless to say this caused much sorrow among its members, but upon petition to the encampment at Indianapolis in February of the same year, the charter was restored. The Grand Army of the Republic has done inestimable service to the country. It has fostered patriotic impulses in the hearts of the people, and through its many activities has done much toward the unification of the country. Its present officers are: W. H. Ritter, commander; Joseph Emery, senior vice-commander; Lawrence E. Miller, junior vice-commander; Horace Martin, officer of the day; Daniel Dressler, chaplain; R. W. Dunmoyer, surgeon; D. W. Swem, patriotic instructor; Mark L. Webster, adjutant; John Y. Slick, quartermaster; William Rosenbury, officer of the guard; Alex Staples, quartermaster sergeant; Miltire Morse, sergeant major; and John Hively, sentinel.

The other posts in St. Joseph county, after the department of Indiana was re-organized, were: Deacon Post No. 115, New Carlisle; Houghton Post No. 128, Mishawaka; Joseph Bowen Post No. 197, North Liberty; Jesse Coppock Post No. 378, Walkerton; Notre Dame Post No. 569, Notre Dame; and Norman Eddy Post No. 579, South Bend. Notre Dame Post has the distinction of being the only one in the United States made up entirely of chaplains and other comrades who are members of a religious organization.

Each post has a Women's Auxiliary, and these Women's Relief Corps Posts have always been actively engaged in assisting the men of the Grand Army in every way possible. Auten Relief Corps No. 14 was organized on May 13, 1885, has taken a prominent part in local patriotic and relief work, and is now officered by Hattie Weaver, president; Miss Moran, senior vice-president; Mrs. M. Beck, junior vice-president; Geneva Frantz, treasurer; and Mrs. James Schock, secretary.

The soldiers monument, which stands in the courthouse yard at South Bend, is exceeded in size and beauty by but one similar monument in the state, that at Indianapolis. It was erected by the county and dedicated June 25, 1903 to every soldier and sailor of the county who has served his country in its various wars.

November 7, 1858, the daughter of Andrew Jackson Fout, who was a veteran of the Civil war. He served in General William T. Sherman's body guard on the famous march to the sea, and was, after the war, an enthusiastic member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He died, in 1900, at the age of sixty-three. His wife, Zalinda Fout, is still living, having attained the advanced age of eighty-four years. John W. Austin completed the eighth grade of the common school in Marshall county in 1906, and then came to South Bend. Here he was first employed with the Studebakers as an automobile tester, and during his six years with that concern gained much valuable experience which he has since utilized to good advantage. He then worked for the Twentieth Century Garage for three years, and upon terminating that association, entered in a small way into an independent garage business. He succeeded in this almost beyond his hopes, and he later moved to No. 910 South Lafayette street, taking larger quarters. His success continuing, and his business growing in proportion to the development of the automotive industry, he established himself in a modern and up-to-date garage in 1919 at Nos. 751-53 South Michigan street, of which business he is the sole owner and manager. Mr. Austin was married, on June 7, 1911, to Bessie V. Ecker, of Nappanee, Indiana. Mrs. Austin was born in that city on April 14, 1889, was there reared and educated, and later attended Manchester College, taking the Normal course. To Mr. and Mrs. Austin one daughter, Maurine Lou, was born, July 25, 1912. The Austins are members of the Church of the Brethren, and he is an active worker in the Y. M. C. A. and the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Austin is of much assistance to her husband in his business, taking charge of the office work. She is a business woman in every sense of the word, and with her capable help, his future success is assured.

John H. Auten, a member of St. Joseph county's agricultural population, is a native here, having been born in Green township on July 13, 1852, the son of William and Sarah (Harton) Auten, pioneers of the county, the former of whom died in 1852 and the latter about ten years later. The father owned a large farm, and he and his wife had nine children, of whom two are now living, John H. and Lila, the wife of George Williams of North Liberty, Indiana. Mr. Auten was reared on the home farm and received such education as was possible in the public schools of the time and locality. He has always engaged in farming pursuits, in which he has been signally successful, and is now the owner of 113 acres of highly cultivated and valuable land in Center township. He was the youngest of the nine children in his family, and on November 25, 1875, was married to Henrietta Dice, also a native of St. Joseph county, having been born just west of Lakeville on March 3, 1857. She was the daughter of Benjamin F. Dice, of whom an account is given under the name of Benjamin F. Dice, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Auten have one son, Charles B., who was born in 1877, who has likewise been reared as a farmer and is now living on the old Dice homestead with his wife who was formerly Nina Lehman, of South Bend. They have one child, Anna Auten, and are members of the Evangelical church, known as the Auten Chapel. This church was named in honor of Mr. John Auten, he having been a trustee of that body for three years, and with his wife has been a devout and constant member all his life.

Frederick L. Axtell, D. D. S., who has been actively engaged in the practice of dentistry in South Bend, Indiana, for the past quarter century, was born June 30, 1872, in Janesville, Iowa. There he received his early education, and going to Cedar Falls, entered the Iowa State Normal. He also studied at Upper Iowa University at Lafayette, Iowa, subsequently he went to Chicago and entered the Northwestern Dental School, from which he was graduated in the year 1896. In the fall of that year he opened his office for the practice of his profession in South Bend, Indiana, where he soon gained a valuable clientele. He now has one of the most completely equipped dental offices in the city. Dr. Axtell was married, in 1901, to Laura S. Wert, of South Bend, daughter of B. F. Wert, a prominent resident of that city. To them have been born four children, Bernice, who is a graduate of the South Bend High School and is now attending DePauw University, at Greencastle, Indiana; Dorothy, now a student in the South Bend High School; Frederick W., and Mildred. Dr. Axtell is a member of the Masonic Order, the South Bend Chamber of Commerce, in which he is an influential member, and the University Club. All the members of his family are affiliated with the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, in which they take an active part. Aside from his profession, Dr. Axtell has engaged in building to some extent, and is now erecting a mammoth garage structure at the corner of Lafayette and Division streets, at a cost of approximately one hundred thousand dollars. The family residence is at 1021 Portage avenue, and his office is located at 315 Union Trust Building.

Frederick H. Badet. One of the large and important industries contributing to the prestige of South Bend as a manufacturing city is the South Bend Toy Manufacturing Company, of which Frederick H. Badet, one of the original founders, is still president. His long and honorable career in business circles has been characterized by strict adherence to high commercial standards, and his standing therefore is one that needs no enconiums. Mr. Badet was born at New London, Connecticut, August 30, 1848, and is a son of Harry S. and Elizabeth (Parmelee) Badet, natives of the same state. Harry S. Badet was born December 2, 1819, and spent his entire career at New London, where he was the proprietor of a modest grocery business until his death in March, 1905. Mrs. Badet, who was born in July, 1822, died in 1908. They were the parents of four children: Mrs. W. A. Bugbee, of South Bend; Mrs. J. B. Vandenbosch, of Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Alice, of South Bend; and Frederick H. Frederick H. Badet received a public school education, South Bend Watch Company, in which position he introduced the South Bend Watch in the states of Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, and Montana, securing a large amount of business considering the fact that the watch had never been sold in this territory before. Altogether he was in the watch business for two years. In 1909 he became a traveling salesman with Carson-Pirie-Scott & Co. of Chicago, having charge of the state of Indiana. Desiring to establish himself in a business of his own he accepted the agency for the Service Motor Trucks, opening his display and service rooms in May 1914, 226 South Lafayette St. Mr. DeVall was married in 1918 to Lulu Miller of Fort Wayne, Indiana. He is a democrat, and is interested in civic and political affairs, and is a member of the Masonic Lodge No. 45, the Grotto, and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. In these connections Mr. DeVall is a popular member.

Frederick Hertlein, now deceased, was for many years a resident of South Bend, and always had the best interests of this city at heart, both in his private and public dealings. He was born in Germany in 1827, was educated in his native country, but at the age of twenty-eight years came to Pennsylvania, locating in Clearfield County, where he was married in 1857 to Johanna Schneider, a young lady who was born in that county in 1834. In 1867, Mr. Hertlein came to South Bend and worked for the Studebakers for a time, leaving them to go with the Birdsells. For thirty-one years he lived at 323 Columbia street, then moved to No. 762 Lincoln Way East. He passed away in 1916, surviving his beloved wife by sixteen years. They were the parents of two children, Emma D., born in 1864, and Samuel, who died in 1915 at the age of forty-three, leaving one son Clarence, now of South Bend. Emma D. Hertlein received a public school training, and in 1885 married Benjamin F. Dice. Mr. Dice was born in Union township, St. Joseph County in 1861, the son of Benjamin F. Dice, Sr., one of the early pioneers of St. Joseph County. Mr. Dice, Sr. came from Ohio in an early day and settled in Union township. His wife was Mary A. Smick, and they lived in a log house of their own building. Later they went to Iowa, but liked the country not a little. After staying two weeks in that country, they returned to St. Joseph County and bought a farm in Center township, which is now owned by John H. Auten and his wife of South Bend. Mr. Dice, Sr. died in 1877, a few years after his wife had passed away. They had nine children, seven of whom grew to maturity, three now living, Mrs. John H. Auten, Elizabeth Hummer, and Benjamin F., Jr. who was reared on the home farm. He is a mason by trade, but is one of those rare and fortunate persons who can adapt himself to any sort of an occupation. To Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Dice, Jr. the following children have been born: Goldie Dice, who married George Kannel, died in 1913 at the age of twenty-seven years. Thurman Dice was educated in South Bend and in Chicago, where the family lived for twelve years, and completed his schooling in South Bend. He married Mary Glaser, and they have two sons, Thurman, Jr. and Richard. He is a foreman at the Johnson Motor Company. Hazel May Dice was educated in South Bend and Chicago, and is the wife of Frank J. O'Brien who holds a position with the Standard Oil Company. Benjamin died in infancy. Harold Dice married Thelma Sult of South Bend and they live in Goshen, this State. Clyde Dice was killed by a street car in 1906, at the age of seven years. Daisy Dice died in 1911 at the age of nine. Harold Dice, the youngest living son of Mr. and Mrs. Dice was in the armed service of the country during the World war. He left South Bend on October 6, 1917 and went to Camp Taylor, and was later sent to Camp Seveir in South Carolina. On May 26, 1918 he went overseas, was on active duty in France for nine months, and returned on March 3, 1919 to this country. He was a corporal in the 115th Trench Mortar Battery, and went through the terrific fighting of the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne offensives.

Al Ditsch is one of the enterprising business men of South Bend who has turned his attention and business talents to the automobile trade, and his garage and sales agency at 223 W. Washington avenue, are recognized as being among the most dependable in St. Joseph County. Mr. Ditsch was born at Mishawaka, Indiana, February 26, 1884. His educational training was received in the public and high schools of his native city. From his childhood he displayed a natural mechanical turn, and in 1901 built the first automobile he ever possessed. His success with this venture, coupled with his talent for salesmanship led him to enter the automobile business and since 1901 he has represented and sold eight different makes of cars. In 1914 he was first in the county to represent the Haynes cars, and in 1916 went into business for himself at 124 E. Jefferson street, but during the war period discontinued his business and was with the Velie Automobile Company of St. Louis, Missouri. When the Haynes Automobile Company once more resumed the manufacture of their cars Mr. Ditsch returned to South Bend, and re-established his business at 666 Laporte avenue, where he maintained a temporary service station. Still later he moved to 427 City Hall Court, and then, in 1920, erected his present modern building, 223-25 W. Washington avenue, where he has every facility for his large and constantly increasing business. He represents the Haynes Automobile Company. A Mason he belongs to South Bend Lodge No. 45, F. & A. M., and he is a member of the Grotto. Mr. Ditsch owns a summer home on Diamond Lake, Cassopolis, Michigan.

Samuel H. Dixon, well-known and successful merchant of South Bend, Indiana, was born in Greenville, Tennesee on August 8, 1878. He received a common and high school education in Greenville, and was reared on the home farm until he was seventeen years of age, when he engaged in the grocery business in his home city. Two years later came the Spanish-American war, and Mr. Dixon patriotically volunteered for service in the United States Army,

SOUTH BEND:
THE TRIBUNE PRINTING CO.
1901.

President of the Tribune Printing Company, and Sergeant A. J. Bodkins, of the police force, are the survivors. Co. G of the 155th regiment was also composed principally of recruits from St. Joseph County.

The 12th Indiana regiment of Cavalry contained a strong company from this locality, and Lieut. Joseph Turnock afterward became its captain.

The 21st Indiana Battery, light artillery, also hailed from this locality. The battery was organized September 9, 1862, with W. W. Andrew of Laporte as captain, and the late Alfred B. Miller, of the Tribune, enlisted as quartermaster sergeant and returned as a lieutenant. W. E. Chess was a lieutenant.

Among the survivors of the 35th Indiana Infantry, the famous Irish regiment, are P. O'Brien, the prominent varnish manufacturer, and D. C. Hogue. Rev. Father Peter P. Cooney, of Notre Dame, was chaplain.

Notre Dame also contributed liberally in men and means to prosecute the war. It sent Rev. Father William Corby as chaplain of the famous Irish regiment of New York, commanded by Gen. Thomas Francis Meagher, and the other chaplains furnished by Notre Dame were: Revs. Father Joseph C. Carrier, Paul Gillen, James Dillon, Joseph Leveque and J. Bourget, the last three of which died of diseases contracted in the army. Col. William Hoynes of the Law department of the University also served gallantly in a Wisconsin regiment.

Truly a record for patriotism and valor of which any city might be justly proud.

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

The enduring patriotism of the veterans of the civil war, who went forth from this city in defense of the nation in the historic years of the rebellion, is best exemplified in the two splendid posts of the Grand Army of the Republic which have been organized here, and which still maintain the old war discipline and harmony, and take active part in all demonstrations of a public character, and particularly in the beautiful and patriotic ceremonies of Decoration Day.

Auten Post No. 8, named after John Auten, private in Co. I, Ninth Indiana Volunteers, the first soldier from South Bend to sacrifice his life for his country, was organized August 31, 1866, in Odd Fellows' Hall. It was first organized as Post No. 1, District of St. Joseph, Department of Indiana and the first officers were: Dr. Louis Humphreys, Post Commander; W. N. Severance, Adjutant; Col. Alfred B. Wade, Quartermaster.

In 1868 the organization was known as Auten Post 17, of Indiana, and this continued until August, 1879, when it become Post 64 of Department of Illinois, with Alfred B. Miller as Post Commander; John G. Greenawalt, Adjutant, and W E. Gorsuch, Quartermaster. The post was subsequently organized under the Department of Indiana, as Auten Post No. 8, which title it has since retained.

Norman Eddy Post No. 579, was organized April 27, 1897, and was named in honor of Col. Norman Eddy, the heroic soldier, wise statesman and honored citizen of South Bend. Harvey W. Perkins was the first post commander; Charles A. Pratt, senior vice commander; A. P. Matthews, junior vice commander; W. E. Gorsuch, quartermaster; W. G. Denman, chaplain; Milton Titus, surgeon.

The post has had a successful and harmonious existence under Post Commanders H. W. Perkins, Charles Pratt, A. P. Matthews and E. P. Stanfield, and is now in a most prosperous condition.

In addition to these posts there are two relief corps composed of ladies known as the Auten Relief Corps, No. 14, and the Norman Eddy Relief Corps, No. 1, and those connected with these organizations have nobly contributed to the relief and aid of those who were entitled to their gentle ministrations.

The Sons of Veterans, composed of the sons of those who have fought in the battles of the rebellion has also been organized in this city, and is in a flourishing condition.

SOUTH BEND IN THE EARLY WARS.

Among those who silently rest in the beautiful grounds of the City Cemetery, are the heroes who participated in every great American war from the revolution to the recent war with Spain.

Of the revolutionary heroes are Peter Roof, Sr., and Isaac Ross, both of whom lived to a ripe old age.

Those who fought in the war of 1812 are Thomas J. Allen, Daniel Cottrell, Ransom Curtis, Archibald Defrees, Christopher W. Emrick, Daniel Heck, Peter Johnson, John Mack, Sr., John Sample and John B. Chandonia. The latter was a half-breed Indian and a trusted scout of Generals Cass and Harrison in the wars of 1812-1814, and was noted for his great bravery His grave is unmarked and unhonored.

Among those who participated in the Black Hawk war of 1832, and the Mexican war, are Henry J. Blowney, who was afterward a major during the rebellion; John H. Fisher, George F. Frank, Hugh L. Hinds, John Owen, Moses Pelka, John Pendl, John B. Raymond, William C. Saunders, Albert Steinbeck and Frank X. Valare.

THE INDIANA CLUB.

The Indiana Club of this city was organized on December 19, 1892, with a list of thirty charter members, comprising many of the leading business men of this city. The first officers were: P. O'Brien, president; George M. Studebaker, vice-president, and John F. Reynolds, secretary.

The club was first located at the northeast corner of Michigan and Wayne streets, occupying the entire third floor of the Myers and Paxson buildings, and the dedication reception was held March 23, 1893. The club was incorporated under the laws of the state, August 15, 1893, and in 1896 the members of the club decided to secure larger quarters. The matter was referred to a committee which after due consideration advocated the purchase of the J. M. Studebaker homestead on Main street, and to improve the property for club purposes. This suggestion was carried to a successful arrangement.

It is purely a social club and is composed of the most prominent men of the social and business community of this city, with a number of non-resident members.

The present officers of the club are: A. D. Baker, president; Perkins Ellis, vice-president; E. B. Reynolds, secretary and treasurer: board of governors for three years, A. D. Baker, Dr. C. A. Daugherty and George M. Studebaker; for two years, Perkins Ellis, and one year, E. B. Reynolds, Irving A. Sibley and George H. Wheelock.

THE COMMERCIAL-ATHLETIC CLUB.

The South Bend Commercial-Athletic Club found its inception in 1895 when the organization of the South Bend Athletic Association was formed by a number of gentlemen of this city who are interested in the advancement of athletics. Later commercial interests were taken up by the association and in June 1896 the name was changed to the South Bend Commercial-Athletic Club, by order of the St Joseph County Circuit Court. Property was acquired on Colfax avenue and the handsome and splendidly equipped club house was erected, and the building was dedicated on October 1, 1896, and the club has been in progressive existence since that time.

Hon. A. L. Brick was the first president of the club, and served two terms, when he was succeeded by Mr. Lafayette LeVan, who also served for two years. The present officers of the club are Dr. D. E. Cummins, president; W. A. Rutherford, vice-president; E. J. Fogarty, secretary; John E. Campbell, treasurer. The directors are Messrs. Lafayette LeVan, D. D. Bates, John M. Brown, T. P. Moredock and W. P. Kelley.

ST. JOSEPH COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

In 1867 the older settlers in his section of the state decided to form an organization designed to preserve the history of the city and county from the early times. As but little of this history, interesting as it was, had yet been written, and as correct and reliable data and reminiscences could only be obtained from the personal recollections of those still the proposition to organize a historical society met with popular favor and a meeting was called for that purpose on October 26, 1867, in the city council room.

The object of the association was declared to be "to collect the early and correct history of St. Joseph Valley and especially St. Joseph County, and to preserve the same in a durable form." The first officers were Horatio Chapin, president; Elisha Egbert, Daniel Dayton and John A. Hendricks, vice-president; William H. Drapier, secretary and librarian; Thomas S. Stanfield, corresponding secretary, and John T. Lindsey, treasurer. A number of interesting papers were read at the various meetings, and

Cottrell, Ransom Curtis, Theophilus Case, Archibald Defrees, Christopher W. Emerick, Daniel Heck, Christopher Lenz, Artemus Johnson, Peter Johnson, John Mack, Senior, Jesse K. Platz, Jehu Meredith, Peter Roof, Junior, Claybourne Smith and John Sample. John B. Chandonai (the name was locally pronounced, sometimes spelled, "Shadney"), was a half-breed Indian, and was a trusted scout employed by Generals Lewis Cass and William Henry Harrison. He was distinguished for his courage and his shrewdness and quickness of understanding. Alexis Coquillard, as we have already seen, was also engaged in the service of General Harrison's army, although he was not an enlisted soldier, being indeed but a boy at the time of the war of 1812.[a]

St. Joseph county was scarcely better, if as well, represented in the Mexican war. The majority of the inhabitants were Whigs; and there were besides many influential citizens of abolition proclivities. The Mexican war was therefore not looked upon with any great degree of enthusiasm. There were a few brave soldiers from the county, however, among them: Henry J. Blowney, John H. Fisher, George F. Frank, Hugh L. Hinds, Edwin T. Lucado, John Owen, John Pendl, Moses Peltier, John B. Raymond, Albert Steinbeck, William S. Saunders, Eugene N. B. Sweetland and Frank X. Vilare. Several of these were afterwards found in the ranks of the Union army, the most distinguished of them being Henry J. Blowney, who attained the rank of major in the Civil war. Major Blowney likewise had a distinction of quite another kind. He was a sign painter, and an artist in his line; and among the men for a time in his employment was the Hoosier Poet, James Whitcomb Riley. The poet has often spoken with tenderest recollections of Major Blowney and of his other friends while he was a resident of South Bend.

III. THE WAR FOR THE UNION.

Sec. 1.—ENLISTMENTS.—On April 12, 1861, Fort Sumter was fired upon. On April 14, 1861, the news came that Major Anderson and the garrison were compelled to surrender the fort. On April 15, 1861, President Abraham Lincoln issued his call for seventy-five thousand men for the defence of the Union, to serve for three months unless sooner discharged. On the same day, April 15, 1861, Governor Oliver P. Morton sent to the president the following dispatch: "On behalf of the state of Indiana, I tender to you, for the defence of the nation, and to uphold the authority of the government, ten thousand men."

On Monday evening, April 15, 1861, a meeting was held in the old court house in South Bend. Party was forgotten. Democrats and Republicans stood shoulder to shoulder in the packed court room. Dr. John A. Henricks was made president; Ariel E. Drapier, of the Forum, and Judge John D. Robertson, vice presidents, and E. E. Ames, E. R. Farnum and William H. Drapier, secretaries. Michael Boynes played the national airs, which they were so soon to play in the field at the heads of regiments. Speeches were made by Dr. Henricks, Schuyler Colfax, Ariel E. Drapier, William Miller, William G. George, Andrew Anderson, William F. Lynch and others. Captain Lynch was then a professor at Notre Dame, where for one or two years previous he had been at the head of a crack college military company, the Continental Cadets, uniformed in the buff and blue of the army of the Revolution, and drilled in the tactics of Ellsworth's Zouaves. None of those present at that meeting, except Captain Lynch himself, had any practical knowledge of military affairs; they had never even seen a military company, except the Continentals on some holiday as they had marched through the streets of the town, or, perhaps, on their way to the railway station to visit Goshen or Laporte. The speech of Captain Lynch was full of a fiery patriotism that carried the audience with his enthusiasm. The brilliant officer soon after returned to his home in Illinois, where he raised the Fifty-eighth Illinois volunteer infantry. He became a distinguished soldier, attaining to the rank of brigadier general, and for a time commanded a division, when he was disabled by a gunshot wound, from the effects of which he ultimately died. Nothing in his brilliant career did him more credit than the eloquent speech he made in that patriotic meeting in our old court house, on April 15, 1861.

On the same evening a like meeting was held at Mishawaka, at which George Milburn presided. Speeches were made by Mr. Milburn and by Messrs Niles, Merrifield, Cowles, Hurlbut, Butterworth, Thomas, Fuller, Judson and Minzie. Another meeting was held in South Bend on Friday evening, April 19, 1861, a committee was appointed to collect subscriptions to aid in forming and equipping volunteer companies and to provide for the families of volunteers. The committee was as follows: Greene Township, Jackson Greene, Daniel Greene, Thomas L. Holloway; Clay, Thomas P. Bulla, G. E. Benton and Jacob Eaton; German, John F. Ullery, Reuben Dunn and A. J. Hatfield; Olive, Jeremiah H. Service, Thomas J. Garoutte and John Reynolds; Warren, J. E. Mikesell, Goble Brown and William Cram; Liberty, George H. Loring, C. W. N. Stevens and Samuel Loring; Union, John Jackson, John Moon and C. J. Turner; Center, Edwin Pickett, David R. Leeper and John Rush. A disbursing committee, to take charge of the contributions, was also appointed, consisting of Isaac Ford, Elias V. Clark, Joseph H. Massey, Samuel L. Cottrell, John T. Lindsey, John W. Chess and Caspar Rochstroh. In harmony with these arrangements was the organization of a Volunteer Aid Association, effected on the occasion of the first meeting, to equip the company that was to be formed, and to support the families of the volunteers. Thus was the spirit of organization and systematic preparation for the great conflict manifested. It was the instinctive principle of American self-government, always present in the hearts and minds of the people, ready to be called forth when the occasion required.

The first military company to be organized for service in St. Joseph county took its departure from South Bend on Friday, April 19, 1861, four days after the president's call, being the first from northern Indiana. The company left the Lake Shore depot for Indianapolis in the presence of a multitude of neighbors and relatives, many of them mothers, wives, sisters and sweethearts. Such scenes, alas! were to become frequent enough in a very short time; and friends and relatives were to bid adieu to dear ones, not for "three months unless sooner discharged," as in this case, but for "three years or during the war." These St. Joseph county volunteers became Company I of the Ninth regiment, Indiana infantry volunteers, three months' men. The Ninth regiment was mustered into the service at Indianapolis, April 25, 1861, under Colonel Robert H. Milroy. It was the first regiment to leave the state, departing for West Virginia May 29, 1861, and arriving at Grafton on the first of June. The regiment was attached to a column under Col. Kelley, sent to surprise the enemy encamped at Philippi, on June 3, 1861. It was afterwards assigned to General Morris's brigade, and took part in many marches and skirmishes and in engagements at Laurel Hill and Carrick's Ford. The regiment returned home in July and was discharged at Indianapolis on the termination of the period of enlistment.

The company which thus went out from St. Joseph county and returned is chiefly noted for the heroic death of one of its members, John Auten, who was killed in a scouting expedition on the afternoon of July 10, 1861, being the first man killed from St. Joseph county. He was in the 22nd year of his age. He was not detailed, but volunteered of his own accord, on the scouting party, which was taken from another company. He was much beloved by his comrades and by those who knew him as a worthy farmer's boy, and so his body was sent home for burial. The funeral was held on August 2, 1861, in the very court room where he had enlisted three months before. Not less than five thousand people attended the services and followed the young soldier's body to its last resting place in the city cemetery. He was our first martyr, and his name is proudly borne by his surviving comrades of the oldest grand army post in the state, Auten Post No. 8, Department of Indiana, G. A. R.

The original muster roll of our first company, Co. I, Ninth Indiana, three months' men, is as follows:

Andrew Anderson, Captain.
Henry Loring, First Lieutenant.
Henry J. Blowney, Second Lieutenant.
Edward P. Chapin, Sergeant.
James Doolittle, Sergeant.

As soon as Co. I, Ninth regiment, three months' service, was mustered out, steps were taken to reorganize the company for three years' service. By that time it had become apparent that enlistment in the army was to be for no holiday excursion; the war was on in dead earnest. While the enemy had learned that one "Reb" could not whip five "Yanks," we also had reached the conclusion that one "Yank" was no match for two "Rebs" It was American against American, and the God of battles alone could know what was to be the outcome.

The following was the muster roll for the new Co. I, enlisted for "three years or during the war":

James Houghton, Captain.
Isaac M. Pettit, First Lieutenant.

The Ninth infantry was mustered at Laporte, September 5, 1861. On December 12, 1863, at Whiteside, Tennessee, the members reenlisted as veterans. The regiment was finally mustered out in Texas, in September, 1865, having served for four years and during the war. The following promotions in Co. I were made during the term of service: Isaac M. Pettit, from first lieutenant to captain; James Nutt, from orderly sergeant to first lieutenant, then to captain; William H. Criswell, from sergeant to second lieutenant, then to first lieutenant; Seth B. Parks, from sergeant to second lieutenant; and Frank W. Childs, from sergeant to second lieutenant. The company lost three officers killed in battle and one who died of wounds received in battle; likewise three privates killed in battle and fifteen who died of wounds or from disease. The regiment was in the following engagements. Green Brier, West Virginia, October 3, 1861; Allegheny, December 13, 1861; Shiloh, Tennessee, April 7, 1862; also in the battles of Perryville, Danville and Wild Cat Mountain; Murfreesboro, December 31, 1862, and January 1, 1863; Chickamauga, September 19 and 20, 1863; Lookout Mountain, November 24, 1863; Missionary Ridge, November 25, 1863; in the numerous battles of the Atlanta campaign and in the pursuit of Hood's army, including the engagements at Columbia and Franklin; Nashville, December 15, 1864; closing its service in Louisiana and Texas. During the service the regiment was under the command of Colonel Robert H. Milroy.

St. Joseph county had one company, Co. B, in the Fifteenth infantry, which, like the Ninth, was also recruited for three years. Those who enlisted from the county were as follows:

John E. George, Adjutant.
Edwin Nicar, Adjutant.
Alexander Fowler, Captain.
John H. Gardner, Lieutenant.
Joseph Haller, Sergeant.
John Owens, Sergeant.
William H. Weed, Sergeant.

The Fifteenth infantry was originally mustered at Lafayette, in May, 1861, in the three months' service. On the reorganization for three years, it was mustered at the same place on June 14, 1861, with George D. Wagner as colonel. Company B lost six men in killed and twelve from wounds or disease. Captain Fowler was promoted to major and afterwards to colonel of the Ninety-ninth regiment. John E. George was promoted from lieutenant to captain. Edwin Nicar was promoted from sergeant to second lieutenant and then to first lieutenant of Company A. Joseph Haller was promoted from sergeant to second lieutenant and then to first lieutenant. Edwin Turnock was promoted from corporal to second lieutenant and then to captain.

The regiment arrived in West Virginia in time to take part in the battle of Rich Mountain, July 11, 1861. It participated in the battle of Green Brier, October 3, 1861. In November, 1861, the regiment was sent to report to General Buell at Louisville. It was with Buell's army in the second day's battle at Shiloh. The regiment was at Stone's River under Rosecrans and took part in the engagement at Tullahoma and afterwards in the battle of Missionary Ridge, where it lost two hundred and two out of three hundred and thirty-four engaged. It afterwards went to the relief of Burnside at Knoxville. A part of the regiment was mustered out at Indianapolis, June 14, 1864; another part being reenlisted veterans and recruits, was attached to the Seventeenth Indiana mounted infantry, and discharged with that organization, August 8, 1865.

The Twenty-ninth infantry went out under Colonel John F. Miller of South Bend, who afterwards became a distinguished general, and after the war a United States Senator. Enlistments in several companies of this regiment took place from St. Joseph county as follows:

John F. Miller, Colonel.
Henry J. Blowney, Major.
James B. McCurdy, Quartermaster.
Joseph C. Reed, Chaplain.
Louis Humphreys, Surgeon.
John M. Stover, Assistant Surgeon.
Jacob R. Brown, Assistant Surgeon.

Of the foregoing, five were killed in battle, one was drowned in the Tennessee river, four died at Andersonville, and twenty-eight died of wounds or disease. Among the dead was Captain Frank A. Hardman, an exceedingly brilliant young man, a son of Dr. Hardman, so often mentioned in this history. John J. Traub was promoted from the ranks to second lieutenant; Robert Shields from corporal to second lieutenant and then to first lieutenant; Alden Whitney, from corporal to second lieutenant; Calvin R. Stillson, from sergeant to second lieutenant; Henry E. Hain, from second lieutenant to first lieutenant; John Taylor, from sergeant to first lieutenant and then to captain.

The Twenty-ninth infantry was mustered into service at Laporte, August 27, 1861. On October 9, 1861, it joined Rousseau's command, in Kentucky. It took part in the movement against Bowling Green, in February, 1862. In March, 1862, it moved with McCook's division from Nashville to the Tennessee river and took part in the second day's battle at Shiloh, April 7, 1862. It was present at the siege of Corinth; was with Rosecrans at Murfreesboro and was engaged at Stone's River, December 31, 1862, and January 1, 1863, losing in that battle many men and officers. It was with Rosecrans on the march to Chattanooga, by way of Tullahoma, and lost heavily in the great battle of Chickamauga. The regiment veteranized at Bridgeport, Alabama, January 1, 1864. After returning from veteran furlough, the regiment was at Chattanooga, Decatur, Alabama, again at Chattanooga. In May, 1865, it was in a skirmish at Dalton, Georgia; then marched to Marietta, Georgia, where it was stationed until October, 1865, when it was mustered out.

The Forty-eighth infantry comes, perhaps, as near to the hearts of the people of St. Joseph county as does any other single regiment, for the reason that, as in the case of the Twenty-ninth, the colonel commanding was a St. Joseph county man, but still more, no doubt, because so large a proportion of all the officers and men were from the county. No less than three full companies, B, E and F, besides members of other companies, were from St. Joseph county, and their record, together with that of their gallant commander, Colonel Norman Eddy, was of so brilliant a character as to enshrine their name and fame in the hearts of all the people. The roster of the companies is as follows:

Norman Eddy, Colonel.
Edward P. Stanfield, Adjutant.
Levi J. Ham, Surgeon.
Sylvester Laning, Surgeon.
W. W. Butterworth, Asst. Surgeon.

The Forty-eighth was mustered at Goshen, December 6, 1861, and left for Fort Donelson, February 1, 1862, where it arrived on the day after the surrender, and then moved to Paducah and in May went up the Tennessee to engage in the siege of Corinth. It was then engaged in the army of Rosecrans against Price, taking part in the battle of Iuka, September 19, 1862, where it lost one hundred and sixteen men, killed and wounded, out of four hundred and twenty engaged. The regiment was also in the second battle of Corinth, under Rosecrans, October 3 and 4, losing twenty-six, killed and wounded. In January, 1863, after numerous marches, the Forty-eighth was at Memphis, where it was assigned to the first brigade, seventh division, of the Seventeenth Army Corps. It was next with Grant, in the rear of Vicksburg, where it took part in the engagements at Forty Hills, Raymond, Jackson, Champion Hills and in the assault on Vicksburg, May 22, 1863, where the regiment lost thirty-eight, killed and wounded. After the surrender, the Forty-eighth returned to Memphis and marched across the country to Chattanooga, and then to Huntsville, where, in January, 1864, the regiment re-enlisted as a veteran organization. After the veteran furlough, the Forty-eighth returned to Huntsville and then joined the first brigade, third division, Fifteenth Army Corps, marching with Sherman's army from Atlanta to Savannah, thence through the Carolinas to Washington. The regiment was mustered out at Louisville July 15, 1865. The Forty-eighth lost in battle during its four years' service two hundred and thirteen men, killed and wounded.

The following promotions took place: Thos. J. Collins, from sergeant to first lieutenant, then to captain; Jacob Augustine, from sergeant to first lieutenant, then to captain; Albert D. Jaquith, from sergeant to second lieutenant; Enoch F. Buckels from corporal to second lieutenant; David F. Spain, from first lieutenant to captain; George W. Hart, from second lieutenant to first lieutenant, then to captain; William B. Spain, from sergeant to second lieutenant, then to first lieutenant; William H. Miller, from sergeant to second lieutenant, then to captain; Oliver E. Slusser, from private to second lieutenant; John A. M. Lapierre, from corporal to first lieutenant and adjutant; Charles T. Chandonai, from first lieutenant to captain; George W. Coquillard, from private to first lieutenant; Barnett Byrkett, from captain to major, then to lieutenant colonel; William A. Judkins, from first lieutenant to captain; Crawford McDonald, from second lieutenant to first lieutenant; Barney Uline, from musician to first lieutenant; William Caldwell, from sergeant to second lieutenant, then to captain; Charles Mason, from corporal to second lieutenant.

The Seventy-third infantry was mustered into the service at South Bend, August 16, 1862, with Gilbert Hathaway as colonel. Company C was raised in this county. The roster is as follows:

Alfred B. Wade, Adjutant.
Edward Bacon, Quartermaster.

On October 1, 1862, the Seventy-third was assigned to the Twentieth brigade, Sixth division of Buell's army and joined in the pursuit of Bragg. On November 7 the regiment surprised and captured Gallatin, Tennessee. It took a gallant part in the battle of Stone's River, under Rosecrans, from December 29, 1862, until January 3, 1863. On April 10, 1863, the regiment was mounted and joined Colonel A. D. Streight's famous raid, in which the Seventy-third displayed the utmost valor. On May the second, in an engagement at Blount's Farm, Alabama, the brave colonel, Gilbert Hathaway, fell mortally wounded. On May the third Colonel Streight was forced to surrender, at Cedar Bluffs, Alabama. The men were forwarded north and exchanged, but the greater part of the officers were kept in prison for nearly two years. On March 28, 1864, Major Wade, having been released from prison, assumed command of the regiment. From this time until April, 1865, the Seventy-third was attached to the first brigade, fourth division, Twentieth Army Corps. In September and October, 1864, the regiment, then under Lieutenant Colonel Wade, won great renown in its defense of Decatur, Alabama, first against General Buford with four thousand men, and afterwards against Hood's whole army of thirty-five thousand men. The strength of the garrison while resisting Buford was but five hundred men, and while withstanding Hood's army was but five thousand. Hood raised the siege, saying it would cost more to take the place than it was worth. The remainder of the service was in skirmishing and guarding railroad communications. On July 1, 1865, the regiment was mustered out at Nashville.

Of the members of Company C two were killed in battle, two accidentally killed, one killed in military prison, while twenty-one died of wounds or disease. Alfred B. Wade was promoted from adjutant to major, then to lieutenant colonel and finally to colonel; John A. Richley, from first lieutenant to captain; Alexander N. Thomas, from corporal to first lieutenant, and John Y. Slick, from private to second lieutenant.

The Eighty-seventh infantry was organized at South Bend, August 28, 1862, with Kline G. Shryock as colonel, and mustered into the service at Indianapolis on the 31st of the same month. Company K and some members of other companies were from St. Joseph county. The roster of those from this county is as follows:

Joseph R. Albright, Chaplain.
Samuel Higgenbotham, Surgeon.

At Louisville, on September 1, 1862, the regiment was assigned to General Burbridge's brigade, and on October 1 it was transferred to the third brigade, third division of the Fourteenth Army Corps and took part in Buell's campaign, including an engagement at Springfield, October 6, and the battle of Perryville, October 8. The regiment moved from point to point in Kentucky and Tennessee for several months after this, engaging in skirmishes with Forrest and other commands. On March 28, 1863, Colonel Shryock resigned and Lieutenant Colonel Newell was promoted to his place. Colonel Gleason was finally brevetted brigadier general. The regiment bore a conspicuous part in the campaign against Chattanooga, and suffered very severely in the great battle of Chickamauga, September 19 and 20, 1863, losing forty killed, one hundred and forty-two wounded and eight missing. Afterwards the regiment was assigned to the second brigade, third division, Fourteenth Army Corps. On November 25th the regiment was on the front line storming up Missionary Ridge, and there lost in killed and wounded sixteen. It took part in the numerous engagements of the Atlanta campaign. In a charge at Utoy's Creek, before Atlanta, on August 4, 1864, the regiment lost seventeen men killed and wounded. After the capture of Atlanta the Eighty-seventh joined with its corps in the pursuit of Hood, and then turned to take its part in Sherman's march to the sea, marching into Savannah on January 30, 1865. In the march through the Carolinas, after the surrender of Johnston's army, the regiment went by way of Richmond to the city of Washington, where it participated in the grand review. On June 10, 1865, the Eighty-seventh was mustered out and returned to Indianapolis.

The promotions in Company K were: James M. Holliday, from second lieutenant to captain; and Andrew J. Chrisman, from private to first lieutenant.

The One Hundred and Twenty-eighth infantry rendezvoused at Michigan City and was mustered into the service March 18, 1864. Company D was made up wholly from St.

Joseph county, and there were St. Joseph county men in other companies. Those in the regiment from this county were:

On March 23, 1864, the regiment left Michigan City for Nashville, where it was assigned to the first brigade of the division commanded by General Hovey, afterwards designated as the first division of the Twenty-third Army Corps, under command of General Schofield. The corps took part in the Atlanta campaign, engaging the enemy at Resaca, Dallas, New Hope Church, Lost Mountain, Kenesaw Mountain, Atlanta and Jonesboro. On June 6, 1864, Colonel DeHart being disabled from wounds, Lieutenant Colonel Jasper Packard assumed command of the regiment. On October the third the twenty-third corps was detached from Sherman's army and ordered to report to General Thomas at Chattanooga, whose army proceeded to thwart Hood's effort to re-capture Tennessee. The One Hundred and Twenty-eighth was engaged at the severe fight at Franklin, where Hood received his first check. On December 15, 1864, Thomas attacked Hood at Nashville and totally routed his army. On January 5, 1865, the regiment having joined in the pursuit of Hood as far as Columbia, Tennessee, marched thence to Clifton on the Tennessee river, and proceeded by boat to Cincinnati, and by rail to Washington. On February the twentieth it embarked by steamer for Fort Fisher, but landed at Morehead City, North Carolina, and went thence by rail to Newburn. For some time thereafter the regiment was engaged guarding railroads, marching and skirmishing constantly. On April 29, 1865, Colonel DeHart was mustered out and Lieutenant Colonel Packard became colonel. He was afterwards brevetted as brigadier general. The regiment was not mustered out until 1866. The promotions in Company D were: John M. Pierce, from captain to major; Erastus A. Harris, from sergeant to second lieutenant, then to first lieutenant; George O. Finch, from sergeant to second lieutenant.

The One Hundred and Thirty-eighth infantry was mustered into the service for one hundred days, on May 27, 1864, and was mustered out on September 30, 1864. James H. Shannon was colonel. Company H was from St. Joseph county. The following is the roster:

But six companies of the regiment were mounted, and all were armed as infantry until the arrival of the regiment at Louisville, where cavalry arms were issued to the mounted companies. One of the mounted companies was Company H. The companies were in camp of instruction at Nashville for three weeks and started for Huntsville, Alabama, May 29, 1864. The duty assigned to the Twelfth was the protection of the railroads against bands of guerrillas and bushwhackers, with whom there were numerous skirmishes. On September 15, 1864, the regiment reported to Major-General Milroy at Tullahoma and was assigned to the defense of that post. Three of the mounted companies—C, D, and H—took part in the defense of Huntsville against Forrest, October 1, 1864. Upon the evacuation of Tullahoma, November 26, 1864, the regiment proceeded to Murfreesboro and took part in the battles of Wilkinson's Pike and Overall's Creek and in other skirmishes and then went into winter quarters at Nashville, where it was assigned to the second brigade, seventh division, cavalry corps. On February 11, 1865, the regiment embarked for New Orleans, but subsequently was ordered to disembark at Vicksburg to go on a raid along the Mobile and Ohio railroad. This order also was countermanded and the regiment again embarked for New Orleans, whence it proceeded to Navy Cove, Mobile Bay, and reported to Major-General Canby. On April 17, 1865, after the fall of Mobile, the regiment reported to General Grierson, and, under command of Major William H. Calkins, took part in the raid of over eight hundred miles through Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi, arriving at Columbus, in the last state, May 28, 1865. The regiment was thereafter engaged at and around Columbus, Grenada, Austin and other points in Mississippi, until its muster out at Vicksburg in November, after which it arrived at Indianapolis, November 16, 1865. The members were finally paid and received their discharges November 22, 1865.

Five members of Company H died from wounds and six from disease. The promotions were: Joseph Turnock, from first lieutenant to captain; Henry R. Fields, from second lieutenant to first lieutenant; Alden Whitney, from private to second lieutenant; Daniel N. Dressler, from private to second lieutenant, then to first lieutenant; Hansom M. Beck, from private to second lieutenant; William Augustine, from private to sergeant; Josiah Morrow, from private to sergeant; William M. Reece, from private to sergeant; Daniel M. The Twenty-first Battery was occupied in Kentucky opposing Kirby Smith until February 2, 1863, when it proceeded to Nashville and Carthage, Tennessee. It took part in an expedition to Rome, Georgia, where there were skirmishes with the enemy, March 19 and 20, 1863, after which it returned to Carthage and engaged in many other expeditions and skirmishes from that point. On June 3, 1863, the battery proceeded to join Reynolds' division of Rosecrans' army at Murfreesboro, and took part in the campaign against Chattanooga and also participated in the battle of Chickamauga and in the storming of Missionary Ridge. During the summer of 1864, it was engaged at different points against Forrest, and on Hood's advance moved to Nashville, where it rendered effective service December 15 and 16, 1864. On June 21, 1865, the battery arrived at Indianapolis, to be mustered out of service. The Twenty-first Battery went out with one hundred and forty-one men and five officers and received sixty-nine recruits. The losses were: Killed in action, two; died of wounds, one; died of accidental injury, two; died of disease, twenty-one. The promotions were: William E. Chess, from second lieutenant to first lieutenant; William M. Whitten, from sergeant to second lieutenant; Alfred B. Miller, from quartermaster sergeant to second lieutenant.

There were numerous others soldiers from St. Joseph county in other Indiana organizations, and indeed in the organizations of other states, particularly Ohio, Michigan and Illinois, but it is believed that the foregoing lists contain the names of those that belonged to distinct organizations from this county. Several soldiers from this county are said to have been in the Twenty-third Indiana infantry. There were also during the period of service occasional transfers from one regiment to another, chiefly in cases where recruits in a regiment were required to serve out their time after the rest of the regiment had been mustered out. In the Fifteenth infantry, for example, there was such a transfer to the Seventeenth mounted infantry. There were also transfers to the Forty-eighth from the Twelfth, Eighty-third, Ninety-seventh, Ninety-ninth, and perhaps also other like transfers. In this way discrepancies in the statements as to membership in different organizations may in many cases be accounted for.

Sec. 2. THE ROLL OF HONOR.—The following list gives, so far as can be ascertained, the names of soldiers of all wars, from the war of the Revolution to the war with Spain, whose bodies are interred in St. Joseph county cemeteries, and also soldiers from this county whose bodies are buried in southern graves:

Sec. 3.—THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.—The association of the soldiers of the Union army for four years, on the march and in camp, in success and in defeat, in battle and in prison, in health and in sickness, and in the final victory for the Union and the constitution, resulted in a patriotic affection, which, after the return, resulted in an irresistible desire to meet again, to "touch elbows," as of old. The meetings were at first simple reunions of companies, regiments, brigades, divisions, and army corps. After a time many of the young men who had been in the army together left home and comrades to seek their fortunes in other places. Thus it came to pass, particularly in the west, that soldiers from various localities, and who had served in different organizations during the war, found themselves living together in the same community, and the desire for the companionship of comrades of the war gradually took the place of the old longing for reunions in their various organizations. That he was a comrade of the war became the equivalent of that he was my comrade in the war. The suggestion, therefore, of a social, semi-military, organization, in which local unions of all honorably discharged soldiers should be formed, became at once popular. Hence the origin of the Grand Army of the Republic, in which honorably discharged Union soldiers and sailors of all organizations meet together as comrades, in local posts, in department encampments and in the grand national encampment.

The framer of the original constitution, rules and ritual of the Grand Army, was Major Benjamin F. Stephenson, of Illinois; but the actual organization was effected by General Robert S. Foster and other Indiana comrades. In July, 1866, General Foster, having learned that Major Stephenson had drawn up a constitution, rules and ritual, went to Springfield, Illinois, and received from him manuscript copies and returning to Indiana began the organization. Among the first posts to organize was Auten Post, in South Bend, for many years the only post in northern Indiana. This post has another distinctive honor. It is the only post in Indiana that has continued its organization from the beginning. For several years, from 1871-2 until 1879, the department of Indiana and all its posts, except Auten Post alone, abandoned their organization; Auten Post never ceased to meet, elect its officers and observe its other duties as a Grand Army post.

On August 31, 1906 Auten Post celebrated the fortieth anniversary of its organization, in the presence of the department commander, Comrade E. R. Brown, and a large assemblage of comrades and citizens. In anticipation of that anniversary, the following roster, accompanied by a brief history of the old post, was published:

History of Auten Post No. 8, G. A. R

The history of Auten post is coeval with that of the Grand Army of the Republic itself; for both were instituted in the same year, 1866, and Auten Post has maintained its integrity uninterrupted through all the years since that date It is the only post within the Department of Indiana that did not go down when the department, as originally constituted, went out of existence. With each recurring year this post elected officers, and on the reorganization, in 1879, our quartermaster had a handsome balance in the treasury ready to start over again. Memorial Day, or Decoration Day, as it used to be called, never ceased to be observed by the post; and on each recurring 30th of May the comrades paid their loving tribute of flowers and eulogies to those who had gone before.

The first post of the G. A. R. was instituted by Major Benjamin F. Stephenson at Decatur, Ill., April 6, 1866. But the first organized department was that of Indiana. From a report made to the twenty-second annual encampment of the Department of Indiana, held at Logansport, May 15 and 16, 1901, which report was approved by the encampment and ordered printed in the Journal, it appears that this department was organized in July and August, 1866. The first order ever issued from any department headquarters was that issued August 20, 1866, by Robert S. Foster, provisional department commander, Oliver M. Wilson, assistant adjutant general. While Major Stephenson, of Illinois, the author of the constitution and ritual of the order, was recognized as provisional commander-in-chief, yet there was no national organization perfected until at the first national encampment held at Indianapolis, November 22, 1866. At this encampment Stephen A. Hurlburt, of Illinois, was elected commander-in-chief; John B. McKeon, of New York, senior vice commander-in-chief; Robert S. Foster, of Indiana, junior vice commander-in-chief, and B. F. Stephenson, of Illinois, adjutant general. The delegates from Indiana to this encampment numbered 210, and from all the other states 78. It appears, therefore, that while Major Stephenson was the originator the comrades of Indiana were the organizers of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The Union soldiers of St. Joseph county were early to the front in the formation of the patriotic order. On August 22, 1866, two days after the issue of the first order issued by the provisional department commander, and just three months before the holding of the first national encampment, the earliest steps were taken; and on August 31st Auten Post was duly organized. For the first two years the department was organized by districts, and this post was at first called Post No. 1, District of St. Joseph, Department of Indiana, G. A. R. The post was named Auten Post from John Auten, a soldier of Company I, Ninth regiment Indiana volunteer infantry, three months' service, who was killed in action near Laurel Hill, West Virginia, July 10, 1861, at the age of twenty-one years, four months and twelve days. This was the first soldier from this part of Indiana killed in action. He was born on Sumption Prairie, St. Joseph county, and lived the life of a farmer's boy until his enlistment. His body was brought home by his comrades and his funeral was held in the old court house, August 2, 1861. It was the first soldier's funeral in this part of Indiana, if not in the whole state.

In 1868 the district system of organization was abandoned, and this became Auten Post, No. 17, Department of Indiana, G. A. R. The old organization of the Grand Army of the Republic continued only until about 1871. At this time Louis Humphreys, a past post commander of Auten Post, was department commander. No department officers were elected after this, nor was any department encampment held until after the reorganization. Auten Post, however, continued its organization, and on August 19, 1879, there being no Indiana department, the post, at the suggestion and request of the officers of the Department of Illinois, was duly mustered as Post No. 64 of that department.

In the early part of 1879 a movement was made for the reorganization of the Department of Indiana; but it was not until October 3, 1879, that a charter was issued for this purpose from national headquarters. The reorganized department consisted of twelve posts, of which Auten Post was made No. 8, although it would seem that the post might well have been called number one, inasmuch as it was the only post in Indiana that remained intact during the whole time when the department itself had ceased to exist. The first meeting of the new organization was held at Terre Haute, October 31, 1879, when the Department of Indiana was formally mustered into the Grand Army of the Republic, with provisional officers, and on January 29, 1880, the first annual encampment was held at Greencastle, at which permanent officers were elected and the reorganization completed. From that date on the Grand Army of the Republic has continued to flourish in this department, and Auten Post has pursued a career of almost uninterrupted prosperity.

In 1884, Auten Post, in the person of Edwin Nicar, past post commander of the post, was, for the second time, honored by the election of one of our comrades as department commander.

The first serious disturbance in the history of the post occurred when the department commander, by an order issued January 20, 1888, saw fit to annul our charter. While the act caused great sorrow to the post, yet there was no hesitancy in obeying the orders of the department commander, and never did the comrades of Auten Post more nobly exemplify in word and action, the cardinal principles of fraternity, charity and loyalty. Over two hundred comrades assembled in the post room January 27, 1888, and resolved that a committee be at once appointed to prepare an appeal to the Ninth Department Encampment. This appeal was prepared and adopted in due time, and a thousand copies ordered printed for presentation at the encampment, which was held at Indianapolis, February 22 and 23, 1888. In this controversy Auten Post was involved through sympathy with Logansport Post, No. 114, of this department. The charter of that post was annulled at the same time. Our appeal was successful. On the explanations made and by reason of the representations of the representatives of both posts, and particularly through the good offices of Past Department Commander Nicar, the department commander, before the opening of the encampment, revoked the order of annulment and the delegates from both posts took their seats in the encampment. It was a happy ending to an unhappy misunderstanding.

On May 13 and 14, 1896, the city of South Bend, and particularly Auten Post, were honored by the holding in the Oliver opera house of the seventeenth department encampment. This encampment was one of the most successful in the history of the Department of Indiana. It was then that Auten Post was further honored by the election of Elmer Crockett, a past post commander of the post, as senior vice commander of the department.

One of the chief sources of the continued prosperity of Auten Post has been the sympathy of the good people of South Bend and St. Joseph county; but particularly the aid and kindly assistance given by Auten Relief Corps, No. 14, organized May 13, 1885, with Mrs. Mary H. Hill, who is now eighty years old, as the first president. These patriotic ladies have been an inspiration to their comrades of Auten Post, and we would thus, in the most public manner, give our testimony to their womanly zeal and continued sisterly kindness to our feeble and disabled comrades, and also to the ornamentation and neatness of our post room.

In 1901, chiefly through the labors of Past Post Commander Joel M. Partridge, the board of county commissioners set apart the court room and adjacent apartments of the old court house for the use of the Grand Army of the Republic; and Auten Post, after the expenditure of seven hundred dollars for repairs, moved into the finest post room in the department.

On June 25, 1903, the St. Joseph County Soldiers' Monument was dedicated under the auspices of the department officers. This monument, the gift of the good people of St. Joseph county, was built at a cost of twenty-five thousand dollars. Auten Post did her full share in securing the favorable action of the people in this patriotic work. The labors of Past Post Commander John Hughes were especially effective.

In the years 1903 and 1904 the work of preparing this roster was undertaken and finally carried to a successful conclusion. It was not an easy task to secure the names of all the officers and comrades of the post from 1866 to 1904; but the work was finally accomplished, chiefly through the aid of our zealous quartermaster, John Kleindinst.

Other posts in this county, and in Elkhart and Laporte counties, were organized through the encouragement and friendly offices of Auten Post; among them Elmer Post, 37, Elkhart; Hathaway Post, 110, Rolling Prairie; Patton Post, 147, La Porte; and Shiloh Field Post, 198, Elkhart. The other Grand Army posts in St. Joseph county, all mustered after the re-organization of the Department of Indiana, and chiefly through the aid, or out of the membership, of Auten Post, are: Deacon Post, 115, New Carlisle; Houghton Post, 128, Mishawaka; Joseph Bowen Post, 197, North Liberty; Jesse Coppock Post, 378, Walkerton; Notre Dame Post, 569, Notre Dame; and Norman Eddy Post, 579, South Bend. Notre Dame Post is noted as being the only post in the national organization which has been made up exclusively of chaplains and other comrades who are all members of a religious society. Norman Eddy Post, named after the heroic and beloved commander of the Forty-eighth Indiana infantry volunteers, was organized April 27, 1897, by former members of Auten Post. The first officers were: Henry W. Perkins, Post Commander; Charles A. Pratt, Senior Vice Commander; A. P. Matthews, Junior Vice Commander; Wilbur E. Gorsuch, Quartermaster; W. G. Denman, Chaplain; and Milton Titus, Surgeon. The subsequent post commanders have been: Charles A. Pratt, A. P. Matthews, Edward P. Stanfield, F. S. Carlton, George W. Loughman, Joseph N. Calvert and Wilbur E. Gorsuch. The post has had a successful and harmonious existence.

In all public affairs relating to the work of the Grand Army, Auten Post and Norman Eddy Post have worked together as comrades, apportioning impartially to one another all the duties and honors of the several occasions. It is thus that the two posts come together as brothers on each Memorial Day, to pay their common tributes of respect to their comrades gone before. It was thus they united to secure the erection of the fine soldiers' monument, of which mention will be made further on.

Each post is aided in its patriotic labors by an active Woman's Relief Corps, made up of the loyal ladies of the community. Without their sisterly assistance the feeble veterans would often fail to receive that sympathy and active help so necessary as age comes on. The veterans gave their youth and strength to their country; and many of them have therefore not been able to keep up in the race of life with those who failed to go to the front and with those of the younger generations. Every Grand Army man, every old soldier, is most grateful to the Woman's Relief Corps, "Auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic."

A camp of the Sons of Veterans is established in South Bend, who, like the Cincinnati of the Revolution, will carry on the patriotic work of the Grand Army, when the veterans themselves are no longer able to do it.

Reference is made in the preceding history of Auten Post to the appeal taken to the encampment of the Department of Indiana, in 1888. To cover and preserve the facts of that historical event, the appeal itself, as presented to the encampment, is here set out:

Appeal of Auten Post, No. 8, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, to the Ninth Annual Department Encampment, to be held at Indianapolis, Indiana, February 22-23, 1888.

Headquarters Auten Post, No. 8, Department of Indiana, G. A. R.

South Bend, Indiana, February 3, 1888.

Commander and Comrades of the Ninth Annual Department Encampment:

At a regular meeting of Auten Post, held at these headquarters on Friday evening, January 27, 1888, the following general order from department headquarters was read:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Jan. 20, 1888.

GENERAL ORDERS
No. 11.

At a meeting of the Council of Administration of this Department, regularly called and held at these Headquarters on the 27th ult., a printed circular letter, purporting to have been issued by certain comrades as a committee of Logansport Post, No. 114, of this Department, bearing date of the 13th ult., and reported to have been circulated among the Posts of this Department without authority therefor first sought or obtained from these Headquarters, which circular contains derogatory and untrue statements concerning the Department Commander and other members of the Department Encampment, was presented and read to said Council; therefore said Council appointed a committee of its members to visit said Logansport Post, No. 14, and to investigate the circumstances of the issuance of said circular.

Afterward, at a meeting of said Council of Administration, regularly called and held on the 13th inst., at the same place, said committee of the Council reported that, in pursuance of the purpose of its appointment, it had visited said Post No. 14, at a regular meeting thereof held on the 10th inst., and as part of its report said committee submitted to the Council a copy of said circular and certain duly authenticated extracts from the minutes of regular meetings of said Post No. 14, held October 11th and 25th, and November 8th, 1887, authorizing the issuing of said circular. And, as a result of its investigation, said committee reported to the Council that said Post should be held responsible for the acts of its said committee in the publication of said circular and the distribution thereof to the Posts of this Department.

The Council of Administration, having considered the report, with its said exhibits, thereupon by unanimous vote, ordered: "That the Department Commander be requested and directed to annul the charter of Logansport Post, No. 14, Department of Indiana, G. A. R., for insubordination and violation of the rules and regulations of the G. A. R."

And thereafter, at the same meeting of said Council, official evidence was introduced before it concerning certain reported action of Auten Post, No. 8, of this Department, in relation to said circular letter, which evidence from the Commander of said Post No. 8 was to the effect that said circular so issued by said committee of Logansport Post, No. 14, was presented at a regular meeting of said Auten Post, No. 8, held on the 23d ult.; that action thereon was then postponed; but that at a regular meeting of said Auten Post, No. 8, held on the 30th ult., with a very full attendance, said circular, after being amended, as to the portion thereof in relation to the mode of deciding upon the place of holding Department Encampments, was endorsed by a unanimous vote.

Said Council, having duly considered said evidence in relation to said Auten Post, No. 8, resolved, by unanimous vote, "That the Department Commander be instructed and directed to annul the charter of Auten Post, No. 8, Department of Indiana, G. A. R."

Now, therefore, in accordance with the findings, determinations and advice of the Department Council of Administration, above set forth, impelled by imperative official duty and the hard necessity of thus preserving and enforcing proper discipline and subordination, the Department Commander, by virtue of the authority vested in him by section 4, article I., chapter V., of the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic, does hereby order:

I. That the charter of Logansport Post, No. 14, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, situated at Logansport, Indiana, be and the same is hereby forfeited and annulled; and that the Commander of said Post turn over and transmit forthwith to the Assistant Quartermaster-General of this Department all the property of this Department in possession of said Post, including books of record and Post papers, as provided by article 3, section I., chapter V., of said rules and regulations.

II. That the charter of Auten Post, No. 8, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, situated at South Bend, Indiana, be and the same is hereby forfeited and annulled; and that the Commander of said Post turn over and transmit forthwith to the Assistant Quartermaster-General of this Department all the property of this Department in possession of said Post, including books of record and Post papers, as provided by section 3, article I., chapter V., of said rules and regulations.

III. All Posts and officers of this Department will take notice of the above and foregoing action and decision, and will govern themselves accordingly. It is earnestly hoped that sincere devotion to the great principles of the Grand Army of the Republic and a common interest in the welfare and reputation of our Department will induce the Posts and the comrades of the Department to heartily co-operate in the attainment of the only purpose of this order—the preservation of discipline and fraternity.

By command of

IRA J. CHASE,
Department Commander.

I. N. WALKER,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

The reading of this order was the first official information that any unfriendly action against the post was contemplated, still less that its ancient charter had been actually annulled by the order of the department commander. The attendance at this meeting of the post was the fullest in its history, over two hundred of its two hundred and seventy-eight members in good standing being present, being drawn out by the information given in the public press that old Auten Post had been stricken from the rolls of the Department of Indiana, and her comrades banished from their fraternal associations in the Grand Army of the Republic.

Nevertheless, these old soldiers, their hearts swelling with suppressed feeling, did not forget their duty in the hour of trouble. Their post commander, Cyrus C. Trump, arose in his place and announced that he had received the order the day before, and that, although he felt that the order was a harsh one and its severity utterly uncalled for, and that it was hard to be thus stricken down without a hearing, without even notice, this too by our own comrades placed over us by the suffrages of the Grand Army of the Republic, yet that a soldier's first duty is to obey orders and submit to lawful authority, even to the death. That he had therefore at once determined to obey the order and surrender the charter; and he asked for the approval of his comrades of the post upon his action. This approval was given by the practically unanimous adoption of the following resolution, offered by Comrade Jonathan P. Creed, there being but three dissenting votes, and the comrades rising to their feet in favor of the resolution:

"Resolved, That this post approve of the declared intention of Commander Trump to return to department headquarters all property in the possession of the post belonging to the department, in obedience to General Orders No. 11."

Not only was the action of the post commander and the comrades thus emphatic in compliance with the letter and spirit of the order of the department commander and the council of administration, but every word uttered in the numerous speeches of the comrades expressed the same generous spirit. Never, in any post or encampment, was there a nobler exemplification of fraternity, charity and loyalty. While the veterans could not repress their emotion in contemplating the wrong they believed done them in their own household, yet they would speak only with respect of the hand that smote them; and even if they should be cut off forever, would still be loyal to the constituted authority of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The undersigned committee were thereupon detailed to prepare this appeal from the order of the department commander to the department encampment, and ask that our charter be returned and that Auten Post be re-instated in full comradeship in the Department of Indiana, G. A. R.

The post, through its committee, specifies the following errors for which General Order No. 11 should be revoked:

1.—The meeting of the Council of Administration, at which it was advised and determined that such order issue was irregular and illegal in this:

a. The members of the council were not all present, nor were all notified to be present.

b. The council was not presided over by the department commander, nor by the senior nor junior vice commander, nor did the council select one of its members as chairman.

2.—No charges or specifications were presented against the post, nor against any of its officers or members; nor was notice given of any contemplated action against them or any of them.

3.—The punishment inflicted by the order is excessive, and out of all due proportion to the alleged offense, and is without precedent in the history of the Grand Army.

4.—The order violates the spirit and principles of the Grand Army of the Republic in this:

a. It is unfraternal in cutting off, without notice, from comradeship and fraternal relations, a faithful post and its veteran comrades.

b. It is uncharitable, by inflicting the severest penalty known to our discipline for a trifling offense unintentionally arising from a free and open criticism of the comrades issuing the order.

c. It is disloyal, by needlessly destroying the post, disrupting the department, and thus striking at the life of the Grand Army of the Republic itself.

We do therefore, comrades of the ninth annual encampment of the Department of Indiana, most earnestly appeal to you, in the name of our common fraternity, charity and loyalty, and in the name and memory of our comradeship in arms, our suffering and triumph together in the defense of our beloved country, to revoke this harsh order and restore us to the household of our brethren and to our rightful inheritance, from which we have been, without a hearing, without even a word of warning, so cruelly thrust out.

That nothing may be concealed from our comrades, we give the offending circular, as follows, in full:

CIRCULAR.

LOGANSPORT, IND., December 13, 1887.

DEAR SISTER AND COMRADE:—

No reform is brought about without agitation and discussion. So much dissatisfaction exists in the G. A. R. and W. R. C., because of the illegal and unwarranted conduct of some of the comrades, and their advising and counseling of the illegal acts of those ladies composing the Indianapolis faction of the Woman's Relief Corps, that the comrades outside of that faction view with alarm the tendencies of those comrades to either control the two organizations in this State or break them up into factions. We have too much regard for our noble organization to quietly sit by and see these things accomplished. Hence we issue this circular letter to the comrades of the Department of Indiana, and hope that they will carefully examine into the matter, and dispassionately and in a true spirit of charity decide what is the best course to pursue to lift the G. A. R. and W. R. C. out from under the baneful influences of the few who assume that they are the G. A. R.

Without authority, and in the face of the law, rules and regulations, a so-called memorial committee was appointed by the Department Commander to procure an endorsement from the National Convention, W. R. C., of the illegal action of the ladies who were at Indianapolis last February, and who, by the advice of these comrades, assumed, in violation of their obligation to their order, to hold a convention. Their action was illegal, revolutionary and factious in the extreme, and tended to destroy the W. R. C. in this Department. By permitting this action the Department Commander violated his obligation to our order. Again, the Department Commander went to St. Louis, and to the ladies composing the National Convention represented that the G. A. R. of this Department endorsed the faction at Indianapolis. He could not have been ignorant of the fact that this statement was not borne out by facts, and that the contrary was true. The G. A. R. of the State never endorsed that faction.

It has been the constant effort of the faction at Indianapolis, under the leadership of the Department Commander, Comrades Carnahan, Foster, Vanasdol, Coburn and McMasters, the memorial (?) committee, to destroy the legally organized loyal auxiliary Department of the W. R. C., presided over by Mrs. L. J. Gorsuch, and substitute the illegal, revolutionary and re-actionary faction at Indianapolis, presided over by Mrs. Flora Wulschner.

In furtherance of these illegal and rebellious actions these comrades have published untruthful and exaggerated statements of the condition of affairs in this Department in the public press of the State. These comrades have, in their unholy desire to rule the Department, advised the ladies of the W. R. C. to violate their obligation to their order, and thus induced them to organize an opposition to the legal authority of that organization in this State.

We don't believe that the G. A. R. or W. R. C. should be run for the political advancement or personal glory of any man or set of men. That is not the purpose of the organization. We believe that their affairs should be conducted in Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty. As there does not appear to be any hopes of so conducting the Department Encampment and the Department Convention so long as they are held at Indianapolis, and kept under the baneful influences of Captain Carnahan and others, we recommend the following:

1. That the Encampment be held at the following cities in the order herein named: Evansville, Terre Haute, Richmond, Fort Wayne, New Albany, South Bend, Lafayette, Vincennes, Logansport and Indianapolis, and so on continuously.

2. That the reports of the Council of Administration, Quartermaster and Adjutant-General be printed, and each delegate be furnished with a copy as soon as the Encampment meets each year.

3. That the practice of comrades making combinations and trades to help themselves or friends into office is especially reprehensible and ought to be condemned by the comrades, and those who practice it disfranchised.

4. That any and all interference with the W. R. C. not authorized by their rules and regulations shall be deemed a violation of the rules and regulations of the G. A. R.

It is with a hope that we may have a more prosperous future; that a better feeling of Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty may exist in our order, and that more intimate and cordial relations may exist between the soldiers of the G. A. R. and the noble, great, big-hearted ladies composing the W. R. C., that we issue this address.

Yours in F., C. and L.,
FRANK SWIGART,
JASPER A. PAUGH,
HENRY C. CUSHMAN,
Committee of Logansport Post 14, Dep't of Ind., G. A. R.

In so far as there is anything in this circular for which Auten Post can be held accountable, and which shall be found contrary to the rules and regulations, or contrary to the principles and discipline of the G. A. R., we do hereby, in the name of the post, disavow the same; and we do, in the name of Auten Post and of all her comrades, disavow any intention whatever of violating the spirit of our obligation as a post, or as officers or comrades thereof, or any intention of doing anything which should have subjected us to the censure or criticism of the lawful authorities of our order.

When we have said this, comrades, we have said all. We are men; we are free-born citizens of this republic; we are American Union soldiers, who have freely staked our lives in red battle, in hunger and wet and cold, in hospital and in prison, all in the glad service of free institutions and the liberty of man, and we have not come home to surrender our manhood. We believe that the institution or the organization which cannot stand free discussion and open criticism is unfit to enjoy the light of that liberty to which our armies have struggled through clouds and darkness; and we should be ashamed of the soldiers of the great republic if they had come back to their friends and neighbors and banded themselves together into an association which should fetter that free speech for which they had proudly fought and won on fields of glory.

We therefore take back nothing of our action on that circular which calls attention to reforms that we believe should take place in the affairs of the G. A. R. in this department. And this we say whether it shall finally appear that those reforms are necessary or not. It was our right to express our views, honestly as we held them, in regard to those matters. The lowliest American citizen has the right to do that; and the soldiers of the republic have forfeited none of the rights of freemen by fighting for liberty, nor have the veterans by banding together to preserve the memory of those hours of trial and danger.

The reforms suggested in the circular are such as we believe proper to be made; whether our belief be correct or not, we had the right as men, as citizens and as comrades, to express it. For the form of expression we should not be held altogether accountable. We took the circular as it was sent us, giving slight attention to the manner of expression, but much to the matter. We do believe that the comrades of the Grand Army should not have interfered in the management of the Woman's Relief Corps, and we do believe that other matters referred to in the circular should receive the attention of this encampment. Shall we be punished for thus believing, or for thus freely expressing our belief?

And, comrades, granting even that we should first have taken this circular and revised its language, so that it should not be quite so plain-spoken, that references to individual comrades should have been omitted or modified,—even so, in the sweet names of fraternity and charity, shall we suffer death for such an offense? Because honest soldiers, plain, blunt men, seeing what, in the simplicity of their hearts, they considered evil practices, should have used a soldier's freedom, and should not have spoken with all the grace of Chesterfield, or all the obsequiousness of Orientals addressing the Shah of Persia,—shall the mandate therefore go forth that they shall be exiled forever?

We do not question the power of the department commander to issue this order, but we do question the right and justice. The framers of our rules and regulations lodged that high power in the hands of the department commander, believing that the comrade so honored would be a man above all personal considerations, and one who would administer his high office in the spirit, not only of "discipline and fraternity," but also of charity towards all his comrades and loyalty to the principles of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The commander might have simply censured the post for what he found censurable; he might even have suspended her charter and referred any wrong doing of which he could complain to the department encampment; or he might, if he so chose, and this for an offense personal to himself, without asking for an explanation, aye, even for the very purpose, if possible, of excluding those who might explain from the floor of the encampment, annul her charter and cut off the faithful old post forever. He might do this, such grave power is entrusted to his hands.

"Oh!
'Tis excellent to have a giant's strength,
But tyrannous to use it as a giant!"

It does seem to us, looking at the matter in all calmness of mind and charity of heart, that the action of the council of administration, endorsed by the department commander in General Orders No. 11, was unprecedented in our history, unnecessarily severe, and especially harsh in view of the fact that no previous intimation was given that the post had fallen under the displeasure of department headquarters. We think that the proverbial love of fair play, so characteristic of Americans and their institutions, should have prevented trial, judgment and sentence, until the post by its representatives could have been heard and allowed to explain and plead in its behalf.

Our noble order was originally based upon fraternity, without regard to former rank, and it was certainly never the design that we should establish an arbitrary rank of our own. Section 4, Article I., Chapter V., of the rules and regulations could not have been intended to place in the hands of one of our officers and his council, however exalted their rank, any star chamber authority. Offenses cognizable by the Grand Army of the Republic are specified in Article 1 of said chapter; and it is distinctly stated in Section 3 of that article that "all accusations shall be made in the form of charges and specifications," thus securing to the accused both notice of the charge against him and the right to plead in defense. It will hardly be claimed that the right thus secured to an individual comrade of a post is denied to all the comrades taken together, or to the post itself.

We do therefore enter our solemn protest against the summary provisions of Order No. 11; and we submit to you, comrades of the department encampment, that for whatever wrong we may have done, whether imaginary or real, the annullment of our charter is an excessive, uncharitable and utterly disproportionate punishment, and therefore confidently ask at your hands the restoration of that charter.

That charter, comrades, is one of the most venerable in this department, having been given to us while attached to the Department of Illinois, and before the existence of the present Department of Indiana.

Auten Post, No. 8, was Auten Post, No. 1, District of St. Joseph, and afterwards Auten Post, No. 17, under the old organization. When that organization was abandoned, Auten Post maintained its integrity, and although responsible to no existing department, met, elected officers, disbursed charity, cared for the needy and destitute in its ranks, and never once failed to observe Memorial Day in all the years that we had no department.

On the 19th day of August, 1879, by virtue of a charter issued from the Department of Illinois, Auten Post, No. 64, took its place in that department, and there remained until the re-organization of the Department of Indiana, when it became Post No. 8, Department of Indiana.

The post has always been loyal to constituted authority, and no insubordination was intended or thought of in its action regarding the Logansport circular. It is the intent that governs, and the absence of all evil intent in that action should entitle the post to the charitable judgment and fraternal indulgence of this encampment.

Ever since the year 1866, we have kept the fires of the Grand Army burning. For twenty-two years no Memorial Day has passed that we have not strewn the graves of our dead comrades with the flowers of springtime, and held forth the memory of their heroic example to the admiration and gratitude of our people. Through good and evil report we have kept on our way, and held fast to the faith. Many a flourishing post around us looks up to ours as founder and helper, and is happy to call herself the child of old Auten Post.

Faithful has the post been, as its reports, and the records of this department will show, to the rules and regulations of the G. A. R. and to department and national orders. Reports and dues have been promptly remitted, including those for the fourth quarter of 1887; and the action of the post in voting to comply with Order No. 11 has shown its unquestioning devotion to the G. A. R. and to constituted authority.

Is it fitting, then, comrades, that this old post, of nearly three hundred members, should be struck down for so slight a cause and in so summary a manner? The sternest laws of war are more lenient than this. The deserter in the face of the enemy, the very traitor himself, is granted at least the form of a court-martial. He is confronted with the evidence against him, and is called upon for his defense, if he has any. Even then, the extreme sentence may be mitigated or commuted; or he may be fully pardoned and asked to prove himself once more in the fire of battle.

Then, too, comrades, it is not the part of the magnanimous general to pass over the too great freedom of his subordinate, if personal to himself, even if he winces under the criticism of this subordinate? Or, in any case, will he, for such an offense, order him shot at sunrise, without warning or the semblance of a trial?

We are wholly unwilling to believe that our comrades of this department will sanction any such summary proceedings against a sister post. Should you do so, comrades, it may be your turn to-morrow, as it is ours to-day; until the fine fabric of the Grand Army of the Republic crumbles to dust, battered down by the fratricidal arms of its own defenders.

We believe you will rather act upon the holy precepts of fraternity, charity and loyalty, the memories of comradeship in danger, our common love of country, and the sacred cause to which we have all devoted our lives. We make this plea for the Grand Army of the Republic and for the Department of Indiana, no less than for Auten Post and for her comrades. You are not ready yet, comrades, without greater cause, to disrupt the noble Department of Indiana, blast her posts and scatter her membership.

Commander and Comrades of the Ninth Annual Encampment of the Department of Indiana, our appeal is in your hands; do with it as honor and duty shall inspire you. We confide in that decision. We believe that you will return to us our charter, books and papers, give seats to our delegates in this encampment, and restore Auten Post, No. 8, Department of Indiana, to your fraternal embrace and to her place of honor in this department, the place which she has so long and so nobly held in the fore front of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Committee on Appeal on the part of Auten Post, No. 8, Dept. of Indiana, G. A. R.

Adopted as the action of Auten Post, No. 8, Department of Indiana, G. A. R., by unanimous vote of the post, at a regular meeting held at headquarters, South Bend, Indiana, Friday evening February 3, 1888.

CYRUS C. TRUMP, Post Commander.
JASPER E. LEWIS, Adjutant.

As stated in the foregoing history of Auten Post, the appeal to the department commander and department encampment was successful; and the post was immediately admitted to membership in the department.

A few years after the close of the Civil war, a military spirit began to be shown in the generation then growing up. In this county that spirit manifested itself in the formation of the South Bend Light Guards, a well-drilled company of young soldiers who in a few years developed into Company F of the Indiana National Guard, officered by such enthusiastic young men as George M. Studebaker, George W. Feaser, George W. Freyermuth and others. Company F was regarded throughout the state as one of the best companies in the I. N. G. When the war with Spain came on and Indiana was called upon to furnish its quota, Company F at once became the nucleus of one of the regiments to start for the front. This regiment was the 157th Indiana infantry, which acted so worthy a part in our short controversy with the proud nation whose dominion at one time, as we have seen, extended from the valley of the St. Joseph to the straits of Magellan. George M. Studebaker was appointed colonel. In time, George W. Feaser was advanced to the lieutenant-colonelcy, and George W. Freyermuth was promoted from captain to major. This later military story is so fresh in the minds of the people that it hardly seems necessary to extend it further. The young men of the Light Guards, Company F and the 157th regiment, showed themselves worthy sons of the veterans of 1861. A camp of Spanish war veterans is one of our military organizations.

Sec. 4.—The Soldiers' Monument.—On June 25, 1903, was dedicated in South Bend the most beautiful soldiers' monument in Indiana, save only the state monument at Indianapolis. This beautiful shaft, of granite and bronze, was erected by the county of St. Joseph, and is the crowning mark of honor for all time to the heroic soldiers and sailors of every war since the Revolution, whose bodies are at rest in the soil of our county. The exercises of the dedication constituted one of the very finest civic and military displays ever witnessed in northern Indiana. The monument itself has given the utmost satisfaction to our citizens, both as a work of art and as a fit and costly memorial to the defenders of the republic. The location of the monument in our small public square, and surrounded and obscured by public buildings, has been criticised. The beautiful shaft is hidden away as if it were something to be concealed; whereas it is worthy of a place for itself, where it might be viewed and admired by all the world. Mr. Leighton Pine, a member of the monument commission, earnestly contended that the shaft should be erected in one of the public parks; and people now generally acknowledge that Mr. Pine was right in this, as he was in relation to the stand pipe, and indeed in relation to almost everything concerning which he expressed a decided opinion. He was one of the brightest and most judicious minded of all the men that ever took part in the public affairs of St. Joseph county. But the soldiers' monument, notwithstanding its location, is a thing of beauty, and will be a joy forever, teaching to all the coming generations its silent lesson of love of country and gratitude to her defenders.

Soldiers and citizens came for a hundred miles on the beautiful June day, to join in the dedication of the monument, and to listen to the fine addresses of Mayor Edward J. Fogarty, Department Commander George W. Grubbs, Captain Edwin Nicar, Colonel William Hoynes and former Congressman Benjamin F. Shively. The historical features connected with the erection and dedication of the monument will perhaps be best shown in an editorial in the South Bend Tribune of that day; in the presentation address by the Hon. Isaac Newton Miller, president of the board of county commissioners and in the acceptance on the part of the Soldiers' Monument

Association. These were, in order, as follows:

The Editorial.

The dedication of the soldiers' monument in the court house grounds in this city to-day marks the last of three important public events in St. Joseph county connected with the great civil war. The first was on an April evening forty-two years ago when, on the news of Sumter's fall, the citizens of South Bend, filled with patriotic indignation, met in mass concourse, denounced disunionism and then and there by the scores volunteered to go at the president's call and battle for their country's cause.

It was a sad occasion when again they met under the leafy maples on the same spot a few months later to pay humble, mournful tribute to the memory of one who had been brought back from the field of strife the first of his comrades to fall at the enemy's hands. Over the silent form of John Auten, wrapped in the starry flag, the highest honor to a soldier and the tenderest tribute of friend were paid. Eloquent were the eulogies said and beside the maimed body fresh vows were taken to stand by the flag and avenge his death.

Many, many more of her brave, stalwart sons did St. Joseph county send to become a sacrifice upon the altar of their country, and the gathered thousands on the historic grounds to-day are there to pay the loftiest tribute, to express the deepest gratitude, to extend the most affectionate fealty, to show the all-abiding love of the living to the dead in the consecration of a monument of granite and enduring bronze to loyalty and heroism.

This impressive memorial that St. Joseph county has erected at much expense to commemorate the valor of her soldiers on the field of glory has been a long time going through the developing process, but it is now complete and will stand as long as time lasts. It certainly is a splendid specimen of the sculptor's art, and will be classed among the city's most conspicuous public ornaments. It is of symmetrical proportions and all of its embellishments and inscriptions are in good taste and appropriate. No one can well look upon the heroic figure surmounting the shaft, the color bearer holding aloft Old Glory, without a thrill of patriotic inspiration, while to the old soldier it stirs the blood and brings up memories of the long ago when the demon of war stalked through this beloved land.

Those who took the responsibility of raising funds for the monument and all who were in any way connected with the selection of its design and entrusted with its construction are certainly to be congratulated upon the success of their efforts. No criticism whatever is to be offered of the shaft. It is one of the finest memorials of the kind to be found in the country, and Indiana has none other to compare with it except perhaps the state soldiers' monument at Indianapolis, which is really no better, only that it is on a more elaborate scale. St. Joseph county may well be proud of the memorial she has erected in the public grounds to show her gratitude to the heroes who went forth to battle for the right in her name. It is a tribute to all who gave up their lives for the flag in every branch of the military and naval service, in all the wars of the republic, from the first struggle for liberty down to the latest for the maintenance of American supremacy, the short war with Spain, for in old St. Joseph's soil sleep the soldiers of 1776, of 1812, of 1846, of 1861, and of 1898.

Mr. Miller's Presentation.

We come to-day to dedicate and consecrate this monument in honor of and to the memory of those who fought and those who fell in the war of the great rebellion. The citizens of St. Joseph county have erected this soldiers' and sailors' monument as a token of the high regard and love they have for the men who saved this, the greatest republic on earth, and who carried Old Glory on so many battlefields to victory.

Almost four years ago there was a petition presented to the county commissioners of this county, asking them to appropriate the sum of $25,000 with which to build a soldiers' monument. The members of the board at that time were Peter Reaves, president; Samuel Bowman and John Fulmer. This county board submitted the petition to the county advisory board and the appropriation was granted without a dissenting vote. From this time on, with the aid of the G. A. R. committee, for which they will please accept our thanks, we labored at every session of the board, up to the present time, to have a monument erected that would be an ornament to the city of South Bend and in keeping with the honor and dignity of St. Joseph county. How well we have succeeded our people must be the judges.

The board of county commissioners feel that they have done their whole duty and have used the funds intrusted to their care and keeping as economically as possible and have received in return from McDonnell & Sons, the contractors, the full value of the money paid.

At the earnest solicitation of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Woman's Relief Corps, there will be a space left around the base of the monument three feet in width, for planting and cultivation of flowering plants, which we hope will be realized as soon as the grounds are in shape, thus keeping the base of the monument a living, perpetual bud and bloom. This we entrust to the Woman's Relief Corps, which we have good reason to believe will be done to perfection. And now, Grand Army of the Republic, as president of the board of county commissioners of St. Joseph county, I present to you this beautiful monument as a tribute to the love and respect we have for you. May you receive it in the same generous spirit that it is freely given.

Mr. Howard's Acceptance.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Board of County Commissioners and the County Council:

It is an honor that I appreciate most highly to be chosen on the part of the St. Joseph County Soldiers' Monument Association to receive from your hands this beautiful and enduring shaft which the good people of this county, through you, have erected to commemorate forever the loyal and heroic citizen soldiers who went out from these borders to maintain the integrity of the republic. In gratitude to you, Mr. President and gentlemen, and to the noble men and women of St. Joseph county whom you represent, we accept this granite monument, surmounted with its noble bronze figures, commemorative of the soldiers and sailors who sleep in honored graves in the cemeteries of every township, city and hamlet of this splendid county named from and nestled in the bosom of the St. Joseph valley. So long as those, our heroes, sleep in the soil which their ashes have made sacred, so long, we trust, will this granite and this bronze bear aloft the flag which they lifted up to sunlight and glory. Happy are the people and secure are their liberties who thus remember and honor their heroic defenders. Well did the governor of the state say, in sending to us his congratulations and his regrets for his unavoidable absence: "St. Joseph county honors herself in thus honoring her soldiers."

Nearly four years ago, on the 16th day of December, 1899, the St. Joseph County Soldiers' Monument Association was formed for the purpose, as stated in its articles of incorporation, of aiding "in erecting at the county seat a monument or memorial hall to the soldiers and sailors of the civil war from St. Joseph county who fought and died in defense of the Union and the rights of man." Membership in the association was open to all the citizens of the county. The following representative board of directors was chosen: John Hughes, Edwin Nicar, Timothy E. Howard, Joseph M. Dolph, John Layton, John A. M. La Pierre, Wilbur E. Gorsuch, Corwin B. Van Pelt, Edward P. Stanfield, Charles Frank, Edward A. Jernegan, G. H. Motts, W. S. Olmstead, William H. Deacon, H. A. Adle, Simon B. Cullars, James Oliver, Clement Studebaker, Joseph B. Birdsell, Marion B. Staley, George W. Lewis, Leighton Pine, George W. Loughman, Frederick H. Badet, Very Rev. Andrew Morrissey, Schuyler Colfax, Martin V. Beiger, Henry G. Niles, George W. Baker, George Wyman, John B. Stoll, Chauncey N. Fassett, Elmer Crockett, Patrick O'Brien, Irving A. Sibley, Charles T. Lindsey, Edward B. Reynolds, Lucius G. Tong, Myron Campbell, Charles L. Goetz and Frederick W. Mueller.

As the executive officer of the association the directors selected the man of all the association best fitted for the task. On more than one occasion had Past Department Commander Edwin Nicar shown his capacity as an organizer, and those who realized how great the task before us turned instinctively to him, and he was selected as president. He thought at first that he had too little time to spare for so great a work and was reluctant to serve. But on the principle that if you want a thing done you must get a busy man to do it, he was pressed into service. There was in another respect a certain fitness in things in the selection of Captain Nicar as president. In 1896 the seventeenth annual encampment of the Department of Indiana, G. A. R., was held in South Bend, and it may be said, without disparagement of the work of any one else, that the success of that encampment was due in great measure to the ability displayed by Edwin Nicar as head of the executive committee. The citizens of South Bend were generous on that occasion, as they always are when appealed to for a great and good purpose, and over $900 remained in the local treasury after payment of all expenses. What to do with this money was not easy to determine. In this emergency the thought of a soldiers' monument came as an inspiration to Mr. Nicar, and the following resolutions drawn up by him were unanimously adopted. The money problem was solved and this fair monument loomed in the distance. These were the resolutions:

"Whereas, The executive committee has reason to believe that the wishes of the contributors to the encampment fund, and public sentiment generally, will sanction the following disposition of the surplus remaining; therefore,

"Resolved, That the balance above mentioned be and the same is hereby appropriated and set aside as the nucleus of a soldiers' monument fund, to be used in connection with such other funds as may hereafter be secured for the purpose, in the erection of a suitable monument in the city of South Bend to commemorate the sacrifices and valor of the soldiers of South Bend and vicinity who lost their lives in defense of the Union in the war of 1861 and 1865.

"Resolved, That until a soldiers' monument association shall be properly organized the balance above mentioned shall remain in the hands of the treasurer of this committee; but, when it shall appear to the chairman and secretary of this committee that such association has been properly organized and is ready for business, they shall draw their warrant upon said treasurer in favor of the treasurer of the monumental association and this being done the work of the executive committee shall be deemed completed and the committee dissolved."

With the funds so provided by the wise foresight of the local committee of the seventeenth department encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, all the expenses of the St. Joseph County Soldiers' Monument Association have been paid, under the watchful eyes of our efficient secretary, Comrade W. E. Gorsuch, and business-like treasurer, Mr. Frederick W. Mueller.

But to secure sufficient funds to build a monument worthy the great county of St. Joseph was a formidable task. To secure an appropriation of twenty-five thousand dollars by your honorable board, it was necessary for the association, first of all, to present a petition signed, as the statute requires, by "the majority of the voters of the county." Whether this could be done or not was the question. The effort had been made several times already and failed. Committees on the part of Auten Post, G. A. R., had tried over and over again, but were unable to succeed. A man of untiring energy, of unflagging courage and perseverance was needed. Happily for this day's triumph, such a man was found.

Past Post Commander John Hughes was made chairman of the committee on petition, and he went to work with that quiet, unassuming, patient energy that has always marked the character of one of the most modest, brave and true soldiers that ever wore the uniform of the republic. It was necessary to get over seven thousand names to secure a majority of the voters. Week after week and month after month the quiet work went on, and whenever a discouraged member of the association expressed doubt as to success Comrade Hughes quietly remarked that we must have patience, that the committee were getting there. It is a moral certainty that no one else could have accomplished the task, but in good time Comrade Hughes brought in his great roll of the voters, and on counting, it was found that over nine thousand had signed the petition. The point of danger was passed.

Edwin Nicar has been the commander of our forces; you, gentlemen, the representatives of the people, have furnished the sinews of war; but John Hughes, the true soldier, faithful to his assigned task, is the unpretending hero of the monument.

Then came the trying task of securing plans and bidders to do the work. Meeting after meeting of the association was held for this purpose. In this connection, while words of praise cannot be given to so many that richly deserve it, there is one name, that of a most public spirited citizen, that cannot be passed over. One of the most faithful attendants of the sessions of the association and one whose encouragement and advice helped very much to keep alive the spirit of the association was that broad-minded, large-souled citizen who sympathized with every elevating and patriotic movement in the community, Clement Studebaker. The soldiers of his county were very near to Mr. Stude-baker's heart, and perhaps the very last public meeting which he attended was that of the association when the design of the present monument was finally selected.

Mr. President, gentlemen, the soldiers' monument is with us to stay. We receive it on the part of the people of St. Joseph county. We and you shall soon pass away, but the people will remain, and this enduring granite and bronze will remain with them as your monument also and ours. The people of our blood and kindred who shall succeed us, and all those who will come to dwell with them in the valley of the St. Joseph, will for a thousand years gather at the foot of this beauteous shaft to receive inspiration from the silent heroes who are here commemorated and they will, too, remember with pride that their fathers arose to the full dignity of patriotic duty when they erected this mark of their love and devotion to those who died that the nation might live.

And now we shall close the History of St. Joseph county with this story of the noble monument which the county has erected to the memory of those who, in the times that tried men's souls, went forth in defense of our homes and firesides and for preservation of the republic.

THIS BIBLE WAS A VERY EXCITING AND HISTORICAL FIND FOR OUR SOCIETY, AND WE ARE DEEPLY INDEBTED TO JOHN YUHASZ FOR HIS CONTINUAL "SEARCHING OUT" OF THESE OLD TREASURES. ABRAHAM AUTEN'S SON JOHN ENTERED THE CIVIL WAR FROM ST. JOSEPH CO. AS A MEMBER OF CO. I, 9TH REGT., IND. VOLS., FOR 3 MONTHS SERVICE. HIS PATRIOTISM WAS SO GREAT, HE VOLUNTEERED FOR A SCOUTING EXPEDITION HIS UNIT WAS NOT DETAILED FOR, AND WAS KILLED 10 JULY 1861 WHILE ON THIS DUTY AT BEALINGTON, VA. HIS DEATH WAS THE FIRST WAR FATALITY FROM THIS COUNTY. HIS BODY WAS BROUGHT HOME AND ON 2 AUG 1861 WAS LAID TO REST IN CITY CEMETERY WITH FULL MILITARY HONORS. NEWSPAPER ACCOUNTS SAY AT LEAST 5,000 PEOPLE ATTENDED THE MEMORIAL SERVICE. THE OLDEST GRAND ARMY POST IN THE STATE, AUTEN POST NO. 8, DEPT. OF IN., G.A.R., WAS NAMED IN HIS HONOR.

THERE WERE TWO EARLY AUTEN FAMILIES IN ST. JOSEPH CO. WILLIAM AUTEN PURCHASED LAND HERE AS EARLY AS OCT. 1836. ABRAHAM AUTEN DOES NOT APPEAR TO HAVE MOVED HERE UNTIL JUST BEFORE THE BIRTH OF HIS SON

JOHN IN 1840, NOTWITHSTANDING THE PENCILED NOTATION IN THE BIBLE STATING HE WITH HIS FAMILY ARRIVED IN 1836. THE "FAMILY RECORD" PAGES OF THE BIBLE APPEAR TO BE A TRUE RECORD WRITTEN AT THE TIME OF THE FACT OR SOON THEREAFTER. ABRAHAM'S FIRST DEED, RECORDED HERE IN 1840, WAS EXECUTED IN 1837 AND STATES HE WAS OF MONTGOMERY CO. OHIO.

THAT DEED SHOWS ABRAHAM PURCHASING LAND FROM THE HEIRS OF MOSES AUTEN, DEC'D. MOSES WAS THE ASSIGNEE OF A WILLIAM AUTEN, WHO HAD OWNED CERTIFICATE #1468, DATED 24 OCT 1833, FOR MICHIGAN ROAD LANDS DESCRIBED AS THE E1/2, SW1/4, SEC 8, TWP 36, R2E, CONTAINING 79 69/100 ACRES. ABRAHAM'S DEED WAS DATED 8 NOV 1837. THE HEIRS OF MOSES AUTEN WERE THOMAS AUTEN, wf MARY; JOHN AUTEN, wf MATILDA; GEORGE WARD, wf LETTY (AUTEN); JOHN SNIDER, wf MARY (AUTEN); ELIZA AUTEN AND HETTY JANE AUTEN, ALL OF HAMILTON CO, OHIO (NOV 1837); OLIVER VANTUYL, wf MARY (AUTEN) OF MONTGOMERY CO, OHIO (DEC 1837); ANNY AUTEN OF HAMILTON CO, OHIO (APR 1853) AND WILLIAM AUTEN, wf SARAH (WHARTON) OF ST. JOSEPH CO, INDIANA. ABRAHAM SOLD THIS PROPERTY TO BENNET N. ENGAL (ENGLE) 5 NOV 1852. QUIT CLAIM DEEDS FROM ANNY AUTEN DATED 13 APR. 1853 AND THE HEIRS OF WILLIAM AUTEN, DEC'D. DATED 16 JULY 1853 CLEARED THE TITLE TO MR. ENGLE. ABRAHAM BOUGHT AND SOLD OTHER PROPERTY FROM TIME TO TIME AS DID MOST OF THE PIONEERS. HE WAS POSSESSED OF 40 ACRES AT THE TIME OF HIS DEATH. A "SUI" FILED IN ST. JOSEPH CIRCUIT COURT DIVIDED THIS PROPERTY EQUALLY BETWEEN HIS TWO DAUGHTERS BY HIS SECOND WIFE.

THE HEIRS AT LAW OF WILLIAM AUTEN, DEC'D (1853) WERE HIS WIDOW, SARAH; JOSHUA AUTEN; WILLIAM BASSETT, wf AMY ANN (AUTEN); AND THOMAS J. SKYLES, wf MARY JANE (AUTEN). HIS OTHER CHILDREN WERE MINORS WHEN HE DIED BUT WERE NAMED IN THEIR MOTHER'S WILL PROBATED 20 FEB 1873, AND WERE JOHN HENRY, WALTER (I BELIEVE HE IS MAHLON WALTER), CHARITY, ANNA, ELIZABETH AMERICA (AUTEN) RITTER, ANN ELIZA (AUTEN) WILLIAMS AND SAMANTHA (WHO MARRIED THOMAS J. MOFFITT 21 AUG 1873, ST. JOSEPH CO., IND). A SON, WILLIAM HENRY DIED 5 DEC 1851, AND IS BURIED BY HIS PARENTS IN SUMPTION PRAIRIE CEMETERY.

ABRAHAM AUTEN'S NAMING A SON OLIVER VANTUYL AUTEN AND MOSES AUTEN HAVING A SON-IN-LAW OLIVER VANTUYL INDICATES A RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN ABRAHAM'S FATHER, RALPH AUTEN (1820/30 CENSUS, HAMILTON CO, OHIO) AND MOSES AUTEN, THE FATHER OF WILLIAM AUTEN OF ST. JOSEPH CO, IND. OHIO RESEARCH WOULD PROBABLY PROVE THE RELATIONSHIP.

ABRAHAM'S OBITUARY (1885) LISTS HIS SURVIVORS AS MAHALA, HIS wf OF SOUTH BEND; OLIVER V. AUTEN AND OLDEST DAUGHTER MRS. BUSH (LUCINDA) LIVING IN WISCONSIN; RALPH AUTEN OF CLYDE, KS; WALLACE AUTEN AND AMANDA (LATER MRS. THEODORE WILLIAMS) OF POWELLS VALLEY, ORE; ADA (MRS. JOSEPH D. TUTT) AND ANTOINETTE AUTEN OF SOUTH BEND. A QUERY IN THE NORTHERN INDIANA HISTORICAL SOCIETY MUSEUM LIBRARY INDICATES THE DAUGHTER MARY WAS OF ILLINOIS AT THAT TIME. (THE QUERY WAS FROM MARY CARROLL HILLES b. 1904, 2323 GLENWOOD, TOLEDO 10, OHIO, AND DATED 1946).

ABRAHAM'S FIRST WIFE AND FOUR YOUNG CHILDREN ARE BURIED IN MARKED GRAVES IN SUMPTION PRAIRIE CEMETERY. ABRAHAM, MAHALA AND THEIR TWO DAUGHTERS, AS WELL AS JOHN, THE VETERAN, ARE BURIED IN CITY CEMETERY. POSSIBLY ALFRED IS BURIED THERE ALSO AS HE MARRIED ESTHER MEYERS IN SOUTH BEND ON 7 FEB 1865, AND THE BIBLE RECORDS HIS DEATH IN 1868. EIGHT OF ABRAHAM'S FOURTEEN CHILDREN WERE LIVING WHEN HE DIED, BUT ONLY THE TWO FROM HIS LAST MARRIAGE LIVED IN SOUTH BEND.

ANTOINETTE NEVER MARRIED, AND WHEN SHE DIED IN DEC 1932 HER OBITUARY STATES SHE WAS THE LAST SURVIVOR OF ABRAHAM AUTEN'S IMMEDIATE FAMILY AND THAT NO DESCENDANTS LIVED IN SOUTH BEND. HER

WILL ORDERED THE PROCEEDS FROM HER ESTATE BE USED TO ERECT HEADSTONES FOR HER PARENTS, HER SISTER'S FAMILY AND FOR HER GRAVE. THE REMAINING PART OF THE ESTATE WAS TO GO TO HELPFUL NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS (NAMED) AND CHARITIES. IT MUST HAVE BEEN AT THIS TIME THE OLD BIBLE WAS FIRST SOLD. IT'S A MIRACLE IT HAS SURVIVED. IT WILL BE DONATED TO THE NORTHERN INDIANA HISTORICAL SOCIETY, SOUTH BEND.

THE FOLLOWING INCIDENT TOOK PLACE AT BEALINGTON, VIRGINIA (NOW WEST VIRGINIA):
WEST OF THE STAUNTON TURNPIKE, AND NOT FAR FROM THE REBEL WORKS, WAS AN OLD FIELD, WITH HERE AND THERE A CLUMP OF BLACKBERRIES, A GROUP OF DEAD TREES, OR A PILE OF LOGS. ON THE EAST WAS A DENSE WOOD, WITH AN UNDERGROWTH OF LAUREL. ONE DAY FIELD AND WOOD WERE ALIVE WITH SKIRMISHERS. IN THE WOOD THE REBELS WERE COMPARATIVELY SAFE, BUT OUR SOLDIERS IN THE FIELD MUST CREEP STEALTHILY FROM LOG TO TREE, AND FROM TREE TO BUSH, TAKE AIM WITH KEEN GLANCE AND RAPID HAND. A YOUTH, WITH DELICATE FACE AND FORM AND LIGHT CURLING HAIR, LAY BEHIND A LOG NEAR THE ROAD. HE HAD IN HIS HAND A REVOLVER, WHICH HE HAD TAKEN FROM A DEAD REBEL OFFICER THE DAY BEFORE. RESTLESS AND IMPATIENT, HE DETERMINED TO CROSS THE ROAD AND PENETRATE THE DANGEROUS WOOD. WITH SWIFT STEP HE PUT THE THOUGHT INTO EXECUTION, CLEARED THE ROAD, HID IN THE THICKET. A FEW MINUTES, AND TWO SHOTS WERE FIRED; THEN ON THE EVENING AIR ROSE A

SCREAM, SO AWFUL THAT NO MAN WHO HEARD IT WILL FORGET IT TO HIS DYING DAY. MORTAL AGONY WAS IN THAT SHRILL CRY. THE SKIRMISHERS IN THE FIELD SPRANG TO THEIR FEET, AND DREW INSTANTLY TOGETHER. THE HASTY AND PERILOUS RESOLVE WAS MADE TO DASH INTO THE WOOD. IN THE LAUREL, A FEW STEPS FROM THE ROAD, THEY FOUND THE BLEEDING, LIFELESS BODY OF THE RECKLESS BOY. HE WAS "JOHN AUTEN", OF THE NINTH.

"The Soldier of Indiana" A book about Indiana soldiers in the Civil War. This particular incident took place at Bealington, W. Va.

West of the Staunton turnpike, and not far from the Rebel works, was an old field, with here and there a clump of blackberries, a group of dead trees, or a pile of logs. On the east was a dense wood, with an undergrowth of laurel. One day field and wood were alive with skirmishers. In the wood the Rebels were comparatively safe, but our soldiers in the field must creep stealthily from log to tree, and from tree to bush, take aim with keen glance and rapid hand. A youth, with delicate face and form and light curling hair, lay behind a log near the road. He had in his hand a revolver, which he had taken from a dead Rebel officer the day before. Restless and impatient, he determined to cross the road and penetrate the dangerous wood. With swift step he put the thought into execution, cleared the road, hid in the thicket. A few minutes, and two shots were fired: then on the evening air rose a scream, so awful that no man who heard it will forget it to his dying day. Mortal agony was in that shrill cry. The skirmishers in the field sprang to their feet, and drew instantly together. The hasty and perilous resolve was made to dash into the wood. In the laurel, a few steps from the road, they found the bleeding, lifeless body of the reckless boy. He was JOHN AUTEN, of the Ninth.

DEAR MICHAEL,

I AM IN THE PROCESS OF COMPILING GENEALOGICAL INFORMATION ON THE AUTEN FAMILIES OF AMERICA. IF YOU WOULD BE SO KIND AS TO PROVIDE THE INFORMATION NOT SHOWN FOR YOUR FAMILY ON THE ENCLOSED FORMS, I WOULD BE MOST APPRECIATIVE.

IF YOU HAVE ADDRESSES AND/OR TELEPHONE NUMBERS FOR ANY INDIVIDUALS ON THE FORMS WHO ARE LIVING, PLEASE LIST THEM ON THE REVERSE SIDE OF THE RESPECTIVE FORM. YOUR ASSISTANCE IS GREATLY APPRECIATED.

ENCLOSED IS A SELF-ADDRESSED STAMPED ENVELOPE FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE IN REPLYING.

VERY TRULY YOURS,

Daniel S. L. Comp

THOMAS FOSTER AUTEN

AGAIN ARE WE CALLED UPON TO RECORD THE DEATH OF ONE OF ADAMS COUNTY'S ABLEST AND MOST PROMINENT PIONEER CITIZENS AND BUSINESS MEN. THOMAS F. AUTEN PASSED PEACEFULLY INTO THE GREAT BEYOND LAST MONDAY MORNING AFTER A LINGERING ILLNESS OF SEVERAL YEARS. FOR THE LAST THIRD OF A CENTURY MR. AUTEN HAS BEEN PROMINENT IN BUSINESS CIRCLES IN THE COUNTY, ALWAYS READY TO HELP EITHER FINANCIALLY OR BY HIS LABOR ANY ENTERPRISE WHICH WOULD BENEFIT THE COMMUNITY. DURING THE PAST FEW YEARS HE HAS BEEN CONNECTED WITH THE FIRM OF AUTEN & GAY, FURNITURE DEALERS, HE BEING THE SENIOR MEMBER OF THE FIRM. HIS POOR HEALTH HOWEVER HAS PREVENTED HIM FROM ACTIVELY TAKING AHOLD OF THE BUSINESS. IN FACT DURING THE PAST YEAR HE HAS BEEN CONFINED TO THE HOUSE ALMOST CONSTANTLY. HIS AFFLICTION WAS THAT DREAD DISEASE CONSUMPTION AND ALTHOUGH THIS LASTED SO LONG AND HIS SUFFERINGS WERE GREAT, HE BORE IT MANFULLY AND PATIENTLY AS THE TRUE SOLDIER HE WAS. THOMAS FOSTER AUTEN WAS BORN IN CARROLL COUNTY, OHIO, NOVEMBER 11, 1839, AND DIED AT HIS HOME IN THIS CITY MAY 2ND, 1898, AGED FIFTY-NINE YEARS, FIVE MONTHS AND TWENTY-ONE DAYS. WHEN BUT A CHILD HIS PARENTS RE-MOVED TO THIS COUNTY AND SETTLED ON A FARM NEAR MONMOUTH. HERE HE RESIDED UNTIL AUGUST 1861, WHEN HE ENLISTED IN COMPANY K, EIGHTY-NINTH REGIMENT AND MARCHED GALLANTLY TO THE FRONT

TO SERVE UNDER THE FLAG OF HIS COUNTRY WHICH HE LOVED SO WELL. HE ENTERED THE SERVICE AS CORPORAL IN WHICH POSITION HE SERVED UNTIL JUNE 1864, WHEN HE WAS PROMOTED TO FIFTH SERGEANT. THIS OFFICE HE FILLED FAITHFULLY AND WELL UNTIL HE WAS MUSTERED OUT OF THE SERVICE, AUGUST 8, 1860.

THE FIRST BATTLE IN WHICH HE WAS ENGAGED WAS ON SEPTEMBER 14 TO 16, 1862, AT MONFORDVILLE, KENTUCKY, WHEN HE WAS TAKEN PRISONER. IN 1864 HIS REGIMENT UNDER MAJOR W.T. SHERMAN, LEFT VICKSBURG FEBRUARY 2, AND RETURNED MARCH 4, HAVING ENGAGED IN A SKIRMISH ON FEBRUARY 22, MARCH 14 AT FORT De RUSSEY, LOUISIANA, ON APRIL 9 AT PLEASANT HILL, LOUISIANA, ON MAY 7 AT BAYOU La MORE, ON MAY 18 AT YELLOW BAYOU, AT TUPELO, MISSISSIPPI, ON JULY 14. THE NEXT BATTLE IN WHICH HE WAS ENGAGED TOOK PLACE AT NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, ON DECEMBER 15 AND 16, 1864, AND THE LAST SIEGE OF BLAKELY IN FRONT OF MOBILE, ALABAMA, APRIL 9, 1865. AFTER HIS RETURN FROM THE WAR HE ENGAGED IN THE CARPENTER BUSINESS, WHICH TRADE HE HAD LEARNED BEFORE ENLISTING IN THE ARMY. HE FOLLOWED THIS WORK UNTIL 1884, WHEN HE ENTERED INTO PARTNERSHIP WITH B.W. SHOLTY AND OPENED A LARGE DRUG STORE IN THIS CITY UNDER THE NAME OF SHOLTY & AUTEN. AFTER SEVERAL YEARS, THIS BUSINESS WAS DISPOSED OF AND SHORTLY AFTERWARDS THE FIRM OF WOODWARD & AUTEN, FURNITURE DEALERS WAS ORGANIZED. THIS FIRM EXISTED UNTIL 1895 WHEN MR. AUTEN RETIRED. HE HAS SINCE BEEN CONNECTED IN THE SAME BUSINESS WITH J.L. GAY. MR. AUTEN WAS MARRIED JULY 14, 1861, TO MISS JOHANNAH COVERDALE. TO THEM WERE BORN THREE CHILDREN, ONE SON AND TWO DAUGHTERS. THE LOVING WIFE AND THIS ONLY DAUGHTER, MISS MATTIE, STILL SURVIVE, THE TWO SONS HAVING PRECEDED HIM TO A HEAVENLY HOME. WHEN A YOUNG MAN MR. AUTEN UNITED WITH THE EVANGELICAL BRETHERN CHURCH. IN THIS CREED HE WAS A FAITHFUL BELIEVER AND FOLLOWER UNTIL 1890 WHEN HE UNITED WITH THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH. HE WAS EVER A GREAT BELIEVER AND WORKER IN FRATERNAL ORDERS, HAVING BEEN A MASTER MASON SINCE AUGUST 17, 1868 AND A MEMBER OF THE G.A.R. SINCE ITS ORGANIZATION AND IT WAS UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THESE ORDERS THAT HE WAS CARRIED TO HIS LASTING RESTING PLACE. THE FUNERAL OCCURRED FROM THE METHODIST CHURCH IN THIS CITY AT 2 O'CLOCK WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, REV. W.H. DANIELS, OFFICIATED, ASSISTED BY REV. D.T. KAIN, OF MARKLE, INDIANA, AND WAS ONE OF THE LARGEST EVER HELD IN THE COUNTY. THE PALL-BEARERS WERE BROTHERS WHO HAD SERVED WITH HIM IN THE ARMY AND WHO WERE ALSO MEMBERS OF THE MASONIC FRATERNITY. THEY WERE NORVAL BLACKBURN, B.W. SHOLTY, T.R. MOORE, SAMUEL PILLARS, ANDREW TEEPLE AND JOHN D. HALE. DURING THE CEREMONY, EVERY BUSINESS HOUSE IN THE CITY WAS CLOSED AS A MARK OF RESPECT, AND FRIENDS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY TURNED OUT TO PAY THE LAST HOMAGE OF RESPECT TO THE DEAD. MR. AUTEN WAS A MAN KNOWN BY MANY AND LOVED BY ALL WHO KNEW HIM, AND THE RESPECT PAID TO HIM BY THE FRIENDS IS BUT A SMALL TRIBUTE TO HIS SERVICE TO THEM DURING LIFE. THUS ENDS THE LIFE OF ANOTHER HONEST AND UPRIGHT CITIZEN.

OBITUARY: DECATUR, INDIANA DAILY DEMOCRAT, SAT. 25 AUG 1917. DECATUR LIBRARY.

DIED SUDDENLY

DEATH CLAIMED MRS. SAMPSON PILLARS LAST EVENING -- ATTACK OF APOPLEXY HAD BEEN AILING

FOR TWO WEEKS BUT DEATH CAME WITHOUT WARNING -- FUNERAL MONDAY

A DEATH THAT CAME SUDDENLY AND WITHOUT WARNING TO EVEN THE NEAREST OF HER RELATIVES CLAIMED THE LIFE OF MARY JANE PILLARS. WIFE OF SAMPSON PILLARS, OF ROOT TOWNSHIP, LAST EVENING AT SEVEN O'CLOCK.

MRS. PILLARS HAD BEEN IN POOR HEALTH FOR TWO WEEKS, BUT HAD BECOME BETTER AND WAS ABLE TO BE UP AND TO WALK AROUND AGAIN. LAST EVENING SHE HAD STEPPED OUT OF THE HOUSE TO GO TO THE SUMMER KITCHEN ON AN ERRAND WHEN SHE FELL OVER, DEATH APPARENTLY COMING AT ONCE. BY THE TIME HER HUSBAND, WHO WAS IN THE HOUSE AT THE TIME, HAD REACHED HER SIDE, LIFE WAS EXTINCT. A PHYSICIAN WAS CALLED BUT SHE WAS BEYOND ALL POSSIBILITY OF REVIVING, DEATH HAVING COME AT ONCE. IT IS BELIEVED THAT DEATH WAS DUE TO AN ATTACK OF APOPLEXY.

MRS. PILLARS WAS SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OLD LAST JANUARY 31. SHE WAS BORN JANUARY 31, 1842, IN CARROL(L) COUNTY, O. WHEN BUT A SMALL CHILD SHE CAME WITH HER PARENTS, JACOB AND MARTHA AUTEN TO THIS COUNTY, THE FAMILY LIVING NEAR MONMOUTH.

SHE WAS MARRIED IN YOUNG WOMANHOOD TO SAMPSON PILLARS, THE MARRIAGE TAKING PLACE IN THIS CITY. FOR MANY YEARS THEY HAVE RESIDED ON THE FARM WHERE HER DEATH OCCURRED, BEING ABOUT A MILE NORTH OF THIS CITY, ON THE DECATUR-FORT WAYNE RAILWAY. THE HUSBAND AND ONE DAUGHTER, SANNA, WIFE OF CALVIN D. KUNKEL, OF ROOT TOWNSHIP, BESIDES SEVERAL GRANDCHILDREN AND GREAT GRANDCHILDREN, ARE GREATLY BEREAVED IN HER DEATH.

THE DECEASED WAS A FAITHFUL MEMBER OF THE CONCORD LUTHERAN CHURCH. THE REV. SHANKS, PASTOR OF THAT CHURCH WILL OFFICIATE AT THE FUNERAL WHICH WILL BE MONDAY AFTERNOON AT TWO O'CLOCK AT THE RESIDENCE.

CORONER D.D. CLARK WAS CALLED AND PRONOUNCED DEATH DUE TO APOPLEXY.

SNOW'S HISTORY

OF

INDIANA

—BY—

J. F. SNOW, B. S.

TO THE BOYS AND GIRLS, WHO ARE TODAY LOOKING FORWARD TO AN EARLY MANHOOD AND WOMANHOOD, THIS BRIEF HISTORY OF ADAMS COUNTY, INDIANA, IS RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED—SINCE THEIR ANCESTORS FREED THIS LAND FROM SAVAGES AND TYRANTS, BY LONG AND BLOODY STRUGGLES, IN WHICH MANY YOUNG AND NOBLE LIVES WENT OUT WITH THE DAWN OF THE DAY, MAY THIS BE A BEACON LIGHT TO THEIR FUTURE FOOTSTEPS.

Adams county; Amos, a farmer of Root township; Ada, the wife of Philip Schieferstine; Hattie, deceased; Edgar, living in Fort Wayne, and Daisy, who is living at home with her father. The second wife of Mr. Lewton died September 8, 1900.

Mr. Lewton is the owner of an excellent farm of ninety acres in Root township, and all of his land is excellently situated. He has lived on this place since 1870 and has improved it until it is one of the most valuable and productive tracts in the township. His buildings are comfortable, and altogether his place is one of the attractive ones in its neighborhood. He has always been a man who has taken an active part in the affairs of his community and he has played a prominent part in Adams county politics. He is a member of the Democratic party and an earnest worker for the success of this party. His brother, Perry, was the sheriff of Adams county at the time of his death, and the county commissioners appointed Mr. Lewton to serve the remaining nine months of his brother's term. This he did to the satisfaction of the members of both political parties. He is an enthusiastic member of the Grand Army of the Republic and a member of Sam Henry post at Decatur.

SAMUEL D. KUNKLE.

Samuel D. Kunkle, a pioneer farmer of Root township, Adams county, Indiana, was born in York county, Pennsylvania, August 25, 1820, and is the son of Michael and Catherine (Sentz) Kunkle, both also natives of Pennsylvania, but of German extraction. They came to Richland county, Ohio, in about 1825, where Mr. Kunkle purchased a tract of unimproved land and through his efforts and well directed energies the same was soon transformed into a splendid piece of real estate. Here his death occurred about 1850. They were the parents of nine children, namely: Eliza, Mary, Matilda, Dianna, Lydia, Rebecca, Nancy, Michael (deceased), and Samuel D. Michael and Catherine Kunkle were members of the Lutheran church and their lives were ever in harmony with the faith which they thus professed.

The subject of this sketch received his education in the old subscription schools of that day, and eagerly improved all the opportunities in that line that came to him. He lived on his father's farm until twenty-six years of age, when he came to Indiana by way of wagon and bought eighty acres of land in Root township, Adams county, which was in the state of primitive wildness. He built a rude log cabin, where he lived for about sixteen years, subsequently trading his farm for another consistng of one hundred and sixty-two acres in Root township, and on which he now resides. He has erected many substantial farm buildings and the land is under a splendid state of cultivation, yielding rich returns to the owner.

On June 9, 1846, Mr. Kunkle married Miss Martha Dorwin, the daughter of Calvin T. and Fanny (Bell) Dorwin, natives of New York state, but who came to Indiana in 1845 and are now deceased. To the subject and his wife have been born six children: Willie, who died in infancy; Fanny, the wife of Robert S. Peterson; Dora, the wife of Alexander R. Bell; Effie, who died in infancy; Florence L., the wife of Alton De Vilviss, and Calvin, who married Sarah Pillars. Mrs. Kunkle died February 6, 1902, aged seventy-seven years.

Mr. Kunkle is a member of the English Lutheran church and takes a deep interest in its welfare. Politically he is a Republican and served as assessor of Root township for eight years. Mr. Kunkle started upon his career as an independent factor at the bottom of the ladder and by his earnest labor and unabating perseverance is now able to spend the remainder of his life in retirement, having sold his farm to his son Calvin. Calvin D. Kunkle was born March 19, 1863. He was reared a farmer and April 17, 1883, married Sarah A. Pillars, daughter of Sampson and Mary J. Pillars. She was born in Root township. They have one son, Sherman P., and one daughter, Florence L. Calvin D. Kunkle has resided all his years on the homestead and in 1900 became its owner.

CHARLES E. BULTEMEIER.

Charles E. Bultemeier, a successful farmer of Root township, was born in Root township, Adams county, Indiana, January 22, 1853. He is the son of Conrad and Louisa (Miland) Bultemeier. His parents were born in Prussia, Germany, and after their marriage came to the United States and settled in Preble township, Adams county. After a few years' residence in this latter township they removed to Root township. They purchased land and cultivated their farm until the husband's death. Before settling in Root township Conrad Bultemeier worked on the Wabash & Erie canal. He was a careful and frugal man and saved his money. In time he accumulated enough to invest in farm land and purchased his Root township tract. He added from time to time to his original purchase and at his death was the owner of seven hundred acres of fine land. This land became divided among his children and every acre of it is still in the family. Both Conrad Bultemeier and his wife were highly respected residents of Root township and members of the Lutheran church. They became the parents of the following children: Louis, Charles E., Ferdinand, Fred, Wilhelmina, Louise and Lizzetta.

Of this large family Charles E. Bultemeier was the second in order of birth. He was reared on his father's farm in Root township and was educated in the common schools of the neighborhood. He was an industrious youth and made the most of all of the opportunities that presented themselves. In the months when he was not engaged in the schools he assisted his father in the improving and cultivation of his farm. He learned the wholesome lessons to be learned on a farm and he applied these lessons to excellent advantage in the years of his after life. When his father died the farm was divided among the children and Charles secured his share. He was married in 1877 to Miss Dora Horstmeyer, who was born in Adams county and was the daughter of Frederick and Louise Horstmeyer. She bore her husband twelve children, of whom six grew up and are living: August F., Clara L., Eliza L., Charles H., William L. and Lena S. Her death occurred on the family farm in 1906. She was a consistent and honored member of the St. John's Lutheran church.

SCHOOL.

Decatur had a small district school-house until 1854, in which year a two-story frame building was put up at a cost of $3,000. It was 40 x 60 feet in size, and contained six rooms. It stood on the site of the present brick school-house, and after it finished its usefulness as a school building in 1886, it was sold to Henry Krick and moved upon Second street, where it now stands unused. In 1880, when this building had become uncomfortably crowded, a small one-story frame house was built on the same lot for the primary pupils. This building yet stands where it was put up. The present model school-house is two stories in height, contains eight rooms, is heated by furnace (Smead & Co., of Toledo), and was completed July 1, 1886, at a cost of $15,000. It is all paid for, and there are no bonds to pay interest on.

The course of study now in use was adopted in 1879, when Dr. S. G. Hastings was principal. He held that position three years. C. G. White was then in charge for two years, and G. W. A. Luckey has now been principal for three years. The other teachers for 1886–'87 are: Mrs. Bertha M. Luckey, Mattie A. Wolf, Hellena Parrot, Lucy Vail, Mrs. Belle Fristoe, Edith Reynolds, Kate Jackson, Dink Miller and Nettie Moses.

The persons of school age in the district in 1885–'86 were in number, 796; enrolled in school, 521; boys, 256; girls, 265; average number belonging, 396.3; average daily attendance, 372.6; average number of pupils belonging to each teacher, 44. The teachers' pay-roll amounts to $3,216 a year, and the total expenditures for school purposes fall a little below $4,000.

The high school has a three years' course, fitting pupils either for college or for the "school of life." There is also a one year post-graduate course for the training of those who contemplate teaching. The graduates from the high school now number thirty-eight. They are:

1881.—Rufus Allison, Carrie Blackburn, Fannie Dorwin, Anna Fitzgerald, Kate Numbers, Emily Numbers and Maggie Studabaker.

1882.—Page Blackburn, Manasseh Gerard, Kate Jackson, Dink Miller, Flo Woods, Frank Metts and John R. McConnehey.

1883.—Lizzie Brake, Melissa McConnehey, George Brock, Dick Dorwin, Craig Miller and Manasseh Gerard.

1884.—Elmer Richmond and Ida France.

1885.—Etta Chubb, Nettie Moses, Edith Reynolds and Chrissie Wymer.

1886.—Matie Auten, Kittie Christen, Mary Heller, Emma Jackson, Lizzie Jackson, Hattie King, Cora Morrow, Jennie Patterson, Grace Reynolds, Vic Stone, Hattie Wilson and Homer Moses.

The present school board includes: G. Christen, President; W. G. Spencer, Secretary, and John Crawford, Treasurer.

Ossian Lodge No. 343, K. of P. Dr. and Mrs. Dyar are members of the Presbyterian Church.

Calvin D. Kunkel, one of the advisory editors of this publication, is a member of a family with perhaps as old and substantial relations and associations with Adams and Wells counties as any other name. The Kunkels have been here for seventy years, and the earlier generations did some of the heavy work of clearing and developing the land and laying the foundation for the present civilization.

He is a son of the late Samuel D. Kunkel, one of the most widely known men of Adams County. He lived to remarkable age and spent nearly seventy years in this part of Indiana. Samuel D. Kunkel was born in York County, Pennsylvania, August 25, 1820, a son of Michael and Catherine (Sentz) Kunkel. His parents were also natives of Pennsylvania and of German ancestry. When Samuel D. was five years of age the family moved to Richland County, Ohio, where Michael Kunkel applied himself to the task of developing a tract of unimproved land. He lived there until his death in about 1850. He was then past seventy years of age. His widow afterward followed some of her children to Indiana and died in Wells County when quite old. Both she and her husband were active members of the Lutheran Church. Their nine children were: Eliza, Mary, Matilda, Diana, Lydia, Rebecca, Nancy, Michael and Samuel D. All of these children are now deceased, except Mrs. Rebecca Wasson, of Wells County.

Samuel D. Kunkel had only the advantages of the subscription schools of Ohio during his youth. He lived at home on the farm, and at the age of twenty-six, in 1846, came to Indiana, driving a wagon. He bought eighty acres of land in Root Township of Adams County. This was then a part of the primeval wilderness. Here he built a log cabin, made it his home for about sixteen years, and developed a good farm on the Pickaway Road, two miles north of the old settlement of Monmouth. He subsequently traded for another place of 160 acres in Root Township, land which had originally been owned by his wife's father. There he continued the work of improvement and cultivation, and in those scenes which witnessed his productive labors he spent his declining years and died May 1, 1915. Had he lived to August of the same year he would have celebrated his ninety-fifth birthday anniversary.

One of the principal reasons which attracted Samuel D. Kunkel to the wilds of Adams County was the presence here of Miss Martha Dorwin, who had come to Indiana with her parents in the preceding year. On June 9, 1846, they were united in marriage. Mrs. Samuel Kunkel was a sister of Thomas T. Dorwin, long prominent as a physician and druggist at Decatur. She was born in Mansfield, Ohio, July 24, 1824, and came to this county with her parents, Calvin T. and Fanny (Bell) Dorwin. Her parents were natives of New York State. They were married in Ohio, where Calvin Dorwin followed the business of teaching and surveying. He also held the office of justice of the peace. On coming to Adams County he acquired 160 acres of land in Root Township in section 21. This land subsequently became the property of Samuel D. Kunkel and is now owned by Mr. Calvin D. Kunkel. Its improvement and cultivation thus represent the labors and enterprise of three generations. Mr. Calvin D. Kunkel now has it nearly all in cultivation except twenty acres of native timber, and some of the building improvements go back to the time of his grandfather Dorwin. Late in life Mr. and Mrs. Dorwin retired to Decatur, but finally returned to the old homestead and lived with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kunkel until they died about 1874. They were splendid old people of the county, and Calvin Dorwin followed the fortunes of the whig and republican parties. Of their large family of children Mrs. Samuel Kunkel was the oldest and was the last to pass away. She died February 6, 1902, at the age of seventy-seven. Samuel Kunkel and wife had six children, Willie, Fanny, Dora, Effie, Florence L. and Calvin. Samuel Kunkel was for many years an active member of the English Lutheran Church and in politics a republican. For eight years he filled the office of assessor of Root Township and always showed an intelligent and public spirited interest in the affairs of the county and the people as they had developed year by year from the pioneer stage.

Mr. Calvin D. Kunkel was born in Adams County March 19, 1863. He has spent practically all his life on the land which his grandfather Dorwin first settled and which for many years was owned by his father, Samuel Kunkel, who finally sold it to Calvin. This is one of the most productive farms in Root Township, and Mr. Calvin Kunkel has distinguished himself as a thrifty and progressive business farmer. His place is located on the St. Mary's River three miles from Decatur and adjoining the site of the old and almost forgotten Village of Monmouth. Mr. Kunkel acquired a good education, partly in the local public schools and partly in a normal school at Lebanon, Ohio. For a time he taught school in Washington Township and for five years was connected with the Decatur city schools. Altogether he put in about eighteen years in the school room, and since then has applied himself with results and accomplishments to the business of farming and stock-raising.

On April 17, 1883, Mr. Kunkel married Miss Sarah Ann Pillars. She was born in Root Township December 10, 1862, and was reared and educated here. Her parents were Sampson and Mary J. (Auten) Pillars, the former a native of Indiana and the latter of Ohio. They married in Root Township of Adams County and for many years the father followed farming and still lives on his old homestead, being now seventy-seven years of age. Mrs. Kunkel's mother died in 1917.

Two children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Kunkel, Sherman P. and Florence L. Sherman was born in 1886, was educated in the public schools and the Decatur High School, also in the Fort Wayne Business College, and in recent years has been associated with his father in the management of the farm. He married Fannie McConnell, who was born, reared and educated in Adams County. They have two children, Mary J. and David McC. The daughter Florence is the wife of Dale Moses, of Adams County, and they live on the old Pillars farm in Root Township. They have a young son, James Calvin, now three years of age, and an infant son, Richard Kunkel. All the family are members of the English Lutheran Church. Mr. Kunkel has given strict allegiance to the republican party and has found many opportunities to advance the welfare of his native locality. Farming is a strenuous occupation in modern times, but Mr. Kunkel has shown such efficiency and good management in ordering his business that he has had time to furnish support and encouragement to various matters that are of direct concern to the welfare of the community.

Hon. David E. Smith has received a place of distinction in Adams County by his long work as a lawyer, and at present by the capable discharge of his duties as judge of the Circuit Court. He was elected to this office in November, 1912, and entered upon his duties November 13, 1913. The term of Circuit Judges in Indiana is for six years, so that his present term does not expire until 1919.

Judge Smith was admitted to the Indiana bar in January, 1892. He studied law in the State University of Indiana, and he also had student

OLIVER AUTEN DIED SUDDENLY LAST FRIDAY MORNING ABOUT ELEVEN O'CLOCK OF HEART TROUBLE AT THE HOME OF WM. GILBERT IN THE SOUTHWEST PART OF TOWN, WHERE HE HAD BOARDED FOR SOME TIME. HE WAS DOWN STREET DURING THE MORNING AND SEEMED IN HIS USUAL HEALTH. ABOUT SEVEN O'CLOCK HE SWEPT OUT FOR H.A. FRISTOE AND TO HIM COMPLAINED OF A PECULIAR PAIN OVER THE HEART SAYING, "I NEVER FELT JUST THAT WAY BEFORE," AND SEEMED CONSIDERABLY WORRIED. HE WAS ALSO INTO COFFEE & BAKERS RESTAURANT, BLACKBURN & CHRISTENS DRUG STORE AND OTHER BUSINESS HOUSES BUT SHOWED NO SIGNS OF ILLNESS. ABOUT TEN O'CLOCK HE RETURNED TO HIS BOARDING HOUSE AND AN HOUR LATER WAS FOUND DEAD IN THE BACK YARD. THE DECEASED WAS BORN IN CARROLL COUNTY, OHIO, IN 1844 AND WAS FIFTY-SEVEN YEARS OF AGE AT THE TIME OF DEATH. HE CAME TO THIS COUNTY WITH HIS PARENTS WHEN HE WAS ABOUT FIVE YEARS OLD AND LOCATED ON A FARM NEAR MONMOUTH. THERE HE RESIDED UNTIL 1861, WHEN AT THE CALL OF HIS COUNTRY FOR TROOPS, HE JOINED THE 11TH INDIANA CAVALRY. HE SERVED DURING THE WAR AND WAS A BRAVE AND PATRIOTIC SOLDIER. AFTER RECEIVING HIS DISCHARGE HE RETURNED TO THIS COUNTRY AND HAS SINCE LIVED HERE GOING AWAY DURING THE SUMMER OFTEN BUT RETURNING AFTER A FEW MONTHS. HE WAS WELL KNOWN HERE AND IN THE NORTH PART OF THE COUNTY. THE FUNERAL SERVICES WERE HELD SUNDAY MORNING FROM THE HOME OF SAMUEL PILLARS, NORTH OF TOWN, REV. MILLER, OF HOAGLAND.

REFERENCE: THE ADAMS COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY'S "ADAMS COUNTY TRUMPETER", DECEMBER 1993, PAGE 3.
NOTE: THE WRITER OF THIS ARTICLE HAS CONCLUDED IN ERROR THAT "ON AUG. 25, 1878 SHE MARRIED JACOB AUTEN (BOOK D, PAGE 200)" WITH "SHE" REFERRING TO EITHER ESTHER (BLOUVETT) STEPHENSON OR HER DAUGHTER "SAMANTHA". NEITHER IS CORRECT!!! JACOB AUTEN'S MARRIAGE OF S.S. STEPHENSON HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH THE CHARLES STEPHENSON FAMILY.

ASHBAUCHER DONATES OLD SCHOOL RECORD

DECATUR BUSINESSMAN ROBERT ASHBAUCHER RECENTLY SOLD HIS TIN SHOP, AND WHILE CLEANING OUT A HALF-CENTURY ACCUMULATION, CAME ACROSS A NUMBER OF ITEMS HE HAS DONATED TO THE ADAMS COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY, INCLUDING A 1916 MAP OF THE CITY, A GOOD COPY OF THE 1936 CENTENNIAL EDITION OF THE "DEMOCRAT", A CENTENNIAL WOODEN NICKEL, AND SEVERAL OTHER ITEMS, INCLUDING A FADED DOCUMENT MARKED "DEED FOR NO. 1".

DATED MARCH THE 13TH, 1855, THE DOCUMENT READS: "WHEREAS THE INHABITANTS OF DIS. NO. 1 IN T26N, R14E (MONROE TOWNSHIP) ARE IN

WANT OF A PIECE OF LAND ON WHICH TO ERECT A SCHOOL-HOUSE, NOW THEREFORE, KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS THAT CHARLES STEPHENSON & HESTER STEPHENSON HIS WIFE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES FOR THEMSELVES, THEIR HEIRS, EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS AND ASSIGNS, FOREVER HAVE GIVEN AND GRANTED AND DO HEREBY GIVE AND GRANT UNTO THE TRUSTEES OF SAID TOWNSHIP OR OTHERS WHOM THE LAW MAY APPOINT FROM TIME TO TIME FOR THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF DISTRICT NO. 1, THE FOLLOWING PARCEL OF LAND, TOWIT: BEGINNING AT THE NORTHWEST CORNER OF SECTION 12 IN T26N, R14E, RUNNING S. SIX RODS, THENCE EAST SIX AND TWO-THIRDS RODS, THENCE NORTH SIX RODS & THEN WEST 6 2/3 RODS TO THE PLACE OF BE(GIN)ING WITH THE VARIATIONS OF THE SECTION LINES. THE CONDITION OF THE ABOVE DEED IS SUCH THAT WHENEVER THE INHABITANTS OF DIST. NO. 1 SHALL CEASE TO USE THE LOT FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES, THE HOUSE WITH ALL THE IMPROVEMENTS THEREON BELONGS TO THE DIST. AND THE LAND RETURNS BACK TO THE LOT FROM WHENCE IT WAS TAKEN, TOWIT, NW1/4NW1/4 OF SEC. 12, T26N R14E. SIGNED, DELIVERED IN THE PRESENCE OF THIS THE 19TH OF MARCH, 1855.

THIS ONE-ROOM LOG SCHOOL WAS LOCATED IN THE SOUTHEAST CORNER OF THE INTERSECTION OF THE COUNTY FARM ROAD, 200E & 100S, TWO MILES EAST OF MONROE, AND A MILE SOUTH. LATER, THE SCHOOL WAS RE-LOCATED ACROSS THE ROAD IN THE SOUTHWEST CORNER OF SEC. 1, AND CALLED THE HUGHES SCHOOL.

ADAMS COUNTY MARRIAGE RECORDS (BOOK B, PAGE 27) SHOW THAT CHARLES STEPHENSON MARRIED ESTHER BLOUVETT MARCH 21, 1847. CENSUS RECORDS INDICATE THEY HAD AT LEAST 10 CHILDREN, SO THEY GOT THEIR DONATIONS'S WORTH FROM THE SCHOOL! THEIR OLDEST CHILD, SAMANTHA, WAS SIX WHEN THEY GAVE THE LAND. ON AUG. 25, 1878 SHE MARRIED JACOB AUTEN (BOOK D, PAGE 200). THE 1850 CENSUS SHOWS THAT CHARLES WAS BORN IN FRANCE, AND COURT RECORDS (AP 367) SHOW THAT CHARLES STEPHENSON WAS BORN IN FRANCE ON 2 FEBRUARY 1828, EMIGRATED FROM NEUTRICK IN THE SPRING OF 1838, ARRIVING IN NY THAT SAME SPRING. OTHER RECORDS SHOW THAT SON PERRY DAYTON STEPHENSON (SPELLED VARIOUS WAYS) MARRIED MARY PATTERSON SEP. 11, 1881. STEVENSON SERVED IN THE CIVIL WAR, AND RETURNED TO ADAMS COUNTY -- IN 1870 HE STILL HAD SIX CHILDREN IN SCHOOL; BY 1880 HE WAS DECEASED OR GONE, HIS SON JAMES A SERVANT IN THE JAMES WAGONER HOME, AND ESTHER STEVESON, 49, FATHER BORN IN GERMANY, MOTHER IN PENNSYLVANIA, IS LIVING WITH PERRY D., THEN 24 AND FARMING: THE TWO OLDER DAUGHTERS, ROSA AND ELLEN, WERE HOME SICK WITH AGUE. TERESA AND ELMER WERE ALSO IN SCHOOL. NEXT DOOR, UNEMPLOYED FOR THREE MONTHS, WAS EMANUEL STEVESON, 28, LABORER: HIS WIFE MELEAN, 29, AND THREE CHILDREN -- LEVI, MATILDA, AND CHARLES. ROSA MARRIED BAZIL EVERHART 29 MAR 1884, AND THE YOUNGER ELLEN MARRIED A. BRANDYBERRY ON MAY 1883.

A LOT CAN BE LEARNED FROM A FEW OLD RECORDS, IF YOU TAKE THE TIME TO PIECE THEM TOGETHER! ARE ANY OF OUR MEMBERS RELATED TO ANY OF THESE FAMILIES?

NOTES FOR SARA COPPESS

ADDRESS: MRS. T.O. DICKENSHEETS
DAYTON, OHIO
DC-513-293-3592
(AS OF 1 OCT 1993)

NOTE: TALKED TO ON PHONE EARLY OCT 1993; SHE IS ABOUT 98 YEARS OLD; WAS UNABLE TO HELP ME WITH THE DICKENSHEETS FAMILY. SUGGESTED I CONTACT HER STEP-SON, ROBERT A. DICKENSHEETS.
